

Mayanglambam Ojit Kumar Singh receiving award for National Honour at Mursidabad

Shop Vandalized in front of police personnel

IT News
Imphal, Dec.13: A sit-in protest was staged today at Masjid road against the vandalising of a toy shop early today morning. According to report a toy shop named W.Jeet Toy & Son located at Masjid road owned by one Wahengbam Jeet(46) of Wahengbam Leikai was vandalised by unknown miscreant using JCB vehicle. Owner of the plot is identified as one Liklabam Sharat of Nagamapal Sinjhumbung Leirak and the shop runner occupied the plot on rent after depositing a sum of Rs. 12 lakhs. The said shop was vandalized by the miscreants even using JCB and tried to burnt down the materials which they drag out from the shop but unable to do so as they fled away after they show sign of some local people approaching towards them. The incident reportedly happen at around 2030 am today morning. Locals said some police personnel were present near the spot when the gruesome crime took place. Jeet told our staff reporter that there was an incident of burning the same shop by unknowns last March 21, where he claimed to lost materials cost around Rs 14-16 lakhs. Again a few days after that incident, he received threat calls warning him to vandalize his shop using JCB so that he would not be able to run his business anymore. A sum of Rs 70 thousand is reported missing from the locker kept inside the shop besides losing lakhs worths of materials.

Army Recruitment result declared

PRO DEFENCE,
Imphal, Dec. 13: Result of Common Entrance Examination (CEE) held on 29 Nov 15 at Rangapahar of Kohima Rally and Shillong Technical Rally for enrolment as Sol GD and Sol Tdn have been declared. Successful candidates are required to collect their joining letter in person, by hand, from Army Recruiting Office, Rangapahar from 17 Dec 15 to 22 Dec 15 between 8AM to 5 PM along with documents. Further details of the same can be obtained from ARO Rangapahar can be checked on telephone No 03862-248845. The result have also been put up on notice board, PIB (Defence), M Sector, Imphal.

Fitting tribute paid to Ojha Sanajaoba on 6th Death Anniversary

I wish his return to the making of a new Manipur – Th. Iboyaima

IT News
Imphal, Dec 13: Fitting tribute was paid today to late Professor Norem Sanajaoba on occasion of the 6th Death Anniversary observed today at Ojha Sanajaoba memorial Complex, Lairekyengpham Makha leikai. People who came to pay respect to the late professor popularly known to the people as Ojha (a pedagogue) paid floral tribute at the memorial site starting from 10 am today. A memorial function of the late Professor was also organized at the memorial complex. Thounoajam Iboyaima, President Irabot Foundation, Manipur, Professor N. Rajmuhon, President, Ojha Sanajaoba Memorial trust (OSMT), Dr. Immanuel Zarzosang Varte, Executive Director, CORE, MD. Salaudin, Director MOBEDS and Executive Officer, State Haj Committee, Manipur, Dr. Gaikhamsin Ramei, Co-ordinator, Center for Human Rights and DFuties Education and L.

memchoubi, President, Poiriei leimanol Apunba Meira Paibi Lup Manipur attended as Chief guest, President and Guests of honour respectively. Speaking on the occasion, Chief Guest of the memorial function Thounoajam Iboyaima expressed his wishes to see the late professor in the making of the new Manipur once again. "Everything he wrote is commendable, there is nothing controversial or objectionable to any of the books or articles written by Professor N Sanajaoba during his life time", Iboyaima who is crossing 100 years said. He further added that books written by him contents various facts on how Manipur can regain its lost freedom by comparing with the history or events of other country. Professor Rajmuhon, who presided the function retrospect the life of Ojha and term him as multi facet personality specialized in finding path to resolve critical problems and challenges that the society have come across in his time. Revisiting the content of the book called "Manipur Past and Present" written by the late professor in three volumes, Prof. Rajmuhon highlighted its relevant in the context of India's Act East Policy. "With the country's policy towards the South East Asia Manipur will be certainly hit by the impact of Globalization", said Professor Rajmuhon. He further added that Sanajaoba also took important role for the rights of the Indigenous people and also for preservation of medical and indigenous plant, culture and tradition etc. Prof. N sanajaoba was born on December 30, 1945 and left us all for heavenly abode on this day of 2009. He was a topper in LLB and a Gold medalist in LLM in Pune University. He also completed his PhD in Law at Guwahati University without a guide.

Awareness Programme on Prepaid meter held

IT News
Imphal Dec 13: Awareness programme on prepaid meter usages for electric power consumers and its necessities was held today at Keishamthong Elangbam leikai, Community Hall. The awareness programme was organised by Emingsel in collaboration with the Young Progressive and Athletic Club, (YPAC) Keishamthong Elangbam Leikai and was sponsored by the Manipur

State Power Distribution Company Limited (MSPDCL). Today's awareness programme is the first of its kind and the MSPDCL is conducting such programme in all the localities of greater Imphal area in the coming days to make the consumers of electricity aware about the benefit of using prepaid electric meter to assure 24x7 uninterrupted power supply in greater Imphal area.

Reaffirmation sitting of NE Indigenous People Parliament within 3 months

IT News
Imphal Dec 13: The first meeting of the working committee on North East Indigenous Peoples' Parliament (NIPP) was held today at Kangsang, Khuman Lampak Sports Complex. Speaking to the media person coordinator of NIPP Ningthouja Lancha said that 31 different tribal's communities participated the NIPP, which was concluded yesterday. Some of the communities which were supposed to take part in the parliament had to return back from Dimapur due to the blockade at Sadar Hills. He said even though they could not take part in the parliament they expressed their solidarity to the parliament through email and letters. He further added that NIPP will hold another parliament within 3 month to reaffirm the resolution adopted during the 3 days sitting. Lancha said Wangkhem Saratchandra has been elected the convener of the working committee of NIPP, and under him a committee of not less than 5 Members from different indigenous community will be elected. The meeting also resolved the office of the CIRCA as the temporary office of the working committee. During the press meet varies tribal communities leaders of the north east were also present.

Manipur's writer honoured National award

IT News
Imphal, Dec 13: Mayanglambam Ojit Kumar Singh, one of the feature article writers of the magazine NeScholar has been awarded the National Honour Award 2015 in a function organized at Mursidabad, West Bengal for the popularization of science and technology among the young students. He is presently teaching as an Assistant Professor in Zoology, Ramjas College, Delhi University. He has been a frequent contributor in the national magazine like Science Reporter published by Council of Scientific and Industrial Research. He writes columns in national news besides reviewing books. He also takes active participation in radio and television programs on Biodiversity conservation and Environmental awareness. He is the third and the last child of Mayanglambam Mani Singh and Kananbala Devi of Kakching Makha Leikai, Raj Dhani Pareng, Manipur. He takes extreme interest in writing popular science articles and scientific reports for young children.

UPSC says no paper admit cards for civil services main exam

PII
New Delhi, Dec. 13: No paper admit card will be issued for this year's civil services main examination, scheduled to begin from Friday, the Union Public Service Commission (UPSC) has said. The candidates will have to download their e-admit cards and take a printout thereof. UPSC will be conducting the main examination at 23 centres from December 18 to 23. The civil services examination is conducted annually in three stages — preliminary, main and interview — to select officers of the Indian Administrative

Service (IAS), Indian Foreign Service (IFS) and Indian Police Service (IPS), among others. "The Commission has uploaded the e-admit cards on its website at www.upsc.gov.in. The candidates are advised to download their e-admit cards and take a printout thereof. The candidates will have to produce the printout of their e-admit cards at the allotted venue for appearing in the examination," a press release issued by the UPSC said. "No paper admit card will be issued for this examination by the Commission," it said. In case the photograph is not visible or available on the e-admit cards, candidates are advised to carry identical photograph for each session along with proof of identity such as valid identity card, Aadhar card, voter identity card, driving license, passport etc. to the venue of the examination. About 15,000 candidates have qualified in this year's civil services preliminary examination, results of which were declared on October 12. As against a record number of 9,45,908 candidates who had applied for the exam, about 4.63 lakh wrote the test on August 23, which is about 49% of the total applicants.

Johnmpamei & The Band's 'Far Away' album to hit the market soon

By Reena Nongmaithem

Imphal, Dec.13: The promising rock star- Johnmpamei & The Band's Latest music Album 'Far Away' Will be releasing on iTunes and other online Music stores worldwide on coming December 21. The album, a collection of seven songs including the Band's 'Cry', the song was nominated for the best song and the band was nominated for the best group at The Artist Music Award 2014, powered by Hungama. Another number 'Far Away' played on various TOP Music Channels in India including VHI, 9XO and MTV and was also play listed on VHI Hit Factory, VHI Exclusive, & MTV Pepsi Top 10 Music Video. 'From Now and Always', 'You & I', 'I'm not the ghost', 'Need you Now' and 'Good Bye' are the songs on the lyrics of John Pamei, the Vocal and Rhythm Guitarist of the band. In a brief interaction with this vocalist over the telephone, he told this reporter that all the lyrics are about his personal feelings and wanted to express the feelings through songs.

Always being inspired by the performances of Chris Martin and his band, Cold play always wants to be a rock star and wants to perform in front of millions of peoples, shared John his dream, the founder of the Delhi based rock band hailing from Tamenglong, Manipur. His band, Rambi as Bassist, Jonah as lead Guitarist, Lungkugam as Drummer have played in various Festivals, pubs, bars and functions as well including Hard Rock Cafe New Delhi, Torquoise cottage, Attitude Alive, Canadian Embassy, Harry Bar (Bangalore), Orange Festival (Manipur) Hornbill (Nagaland) Family Place (Dubai) North East Festival (Delhi) and many more, shared John about his band's performance so far. This time in the Hornbill festival of Nagaland, he was very much satisfied with the crowd and people appreciation though he himself thinks the performance was not up to the mark, said the vocalist thanking the people for the appreciation.