

Free Breast & Thyroid Check Health Camp at their Shija Clinic Thoubal on Monday

AMWJU & Editors' Guild condemn Bomb threat to Impact TV News Editor Pen down strike tomorrow

IT News
Imphal, Dec 15: Joint meeting of the Editors' Guild Manipur and the standing Committee members of All Manipur Working Journalists' Union today strongly condemn the placing of a Hand grenade at the residence of IMPACT TV Editor Yumnam Rupachandra by unknown miscreants claiming to be a members of an armed group. The Joint meeting held at Manipur Press Club was presided by Editors' Guild President Ahongsangbam Mubi and AMWJU President Wangkhemcha Shyamjai. The meeting taking the attack seriously has resolved to stage pen down strike tomorrow as the state government machineries too cannot assure the life of the journalists. The journalists' fraternity of the state will also stage a sit in protest at Keishampat tomorrow. Narrating about yesterday incident Yumnam Rupachandra said that some miscreants called him at his mobile phone at around 7.30 when he was busy convening a TV programme. As he did not give reply to the phone call the said miscreants again called to the land line number and then informed about the placing of the bomb at the gate. Rupachandra said that earlier about a month back three unidentified persons came to his residence and asked him why a press note sent by the outfit has not been published by any of the newspaper. Rupachandra instead of talking further told the three unidentified person to talk about the matter after consultation with other members of the editors guild. Later, some of the members of the AMWJU including the President Wangkhemcha Shyamjai also received similar calls from the similar persons. The caller threatened to publish the news of their organisation which they stated to have been formed recently. All those members of AMWJU replied that there are certain ethics of the journalists working in the region and there are certain restriction in publication of any news. The grenade placed at the residence of Yumnam Rupachandra was collected by a team of Kakva Police station yesterday evening at around 8.30 pm. He further said that after the incident he received another called from the outfit saying that that is the beginning and the party will follow more action if the press statement issued by them is not published.

Protest staged

IT News
Imphal, Dec 15: Women folks of Thongju Pheija Leitong and club members of the locality today staged a sit-in-protest at Pheija Leitong Ground in protest against the placing of hand grenade to the residence of IMPACT TV News Editor Yumnam Rupachandra. Various placards denouncing the placing of the bomb were displayed during the protest. A protestor appealed those responsible in placing the bomb not to repeat such act in future.

1 killed, 1 injured in road mishap

IT News
Imphal, Dec 15: One person was killed and another seriously injured when a two wheeler Activa vehicle accidentally collided with a running passenger bus at Wangjing Bazaar at around 7.30 pm yesterday. The person killed in the road mishap has been identified as Naorem Krishnananda (46) son of Krishnamohon of Kakching Senapati leikai. He was returning back along with one of his friend towards kakching in the Activa Vehicle. The pillion rider, which is yet to be identified, has been undergoing treatment at Shija Hospital Langol. The registration number of the bus which collided the Activa vehicle is MN-01 1633. Police has registered a case and the bus has been detained in their custody.

1 killed in gun fight

IT News
Imphal, Dec 15: A fierce gun battle took place between Assam Rifles and NSCN (K) today since 6.30 in the morning at Nampong Lanka under Changlang District of Arunachal District. One NSCN(K) cadre was killed and one AR personnel sustained injuries from a rocket-fired grenade (RPG) explosion of the rebels during the encounter. Following the encounter additional troop of AR rushed to the spot and conducted mass search operation. As of now no reports of any arrests are forthcoming.

Missing woman found dead suspiciously

IT News
Imphal, Dec 15: A woman who has been reportedly went missing since December 12 was found dead suspiciously hanging at a tree but her knees touching the ground. The dead body was found at around 1 pm at a forest near Sangluipung Village in Chandel District. The deceased woman is identified as Wanglung Samjoily (28), wife of W. Achan of Sangluipung Village in Chandel District. Her husband has been reportedly out of station but return today after hearing about the missing of his wife. The dead body has been collected by a team of Chandel police and deposited at JNIMS Morgue. Post mortem was conducted today in the presence of MLA Nunlung Victor.

ST Demand Committee urges govt. to convert Meitei to ST; memorandum submitted to CM

IT News
Imphal, Dec 15: ST Demand Committee Manipur today staged a protest demonstration at Keishampat Lairembi Community hall urging the state government to discuss about the inclusion of Meitei community into scheduled tribe category.

Speaking to the media persons Retd. Colonel Laisaram Lokendro, General Secretary of the demand committee said that the issue for inclusion of Meitei to schedule tribe status was already put up by MLA NG Bijoy and the Chief Minister had assured to discuss about the matter in the last state Assembly session. He urged the government to discuss about the inclusion of the Meitei to ST in the upcoming state Assembly session. A reminder memorandum containing 21 points was been submitted to the Chief Minister of Manipur today evening.

Illegitimate shop tenant threatened owner using police

IT News
Imphal, Dec. 16: In an apparent case of misusing power by individual who have acquaintances with the people in the high places, one owner of a shop located at Masjid road of Paona bazar alleged that the tenant has threatened him with dire consequences when asked for monthly rent. In a press meet at Wangkhei, Pebam Kenjit Mangang (46), son of P. Manti Mangang of Kwakeithel Khongnemi informed media that the illegitimate occupant identified as Wahengbam Jet

(45) son of late W. Ibohah of Wahengbam Leikai demanded security deposit which he have not taken. According to Kenjit he bought the shop on 23 July 2014 from the first owner of the property identified as Ph. Munindro Sharma (63) son of Ph. Binola Devi of Keishampat Thokchom leikai in which the first owner of the shop rented to one Likmabam Sharat. Later the tenant Sharat rented it to one the W. Jet. When the current owner Kenjit tried to complete the formalities he ignored and verbally abused and threatened the owner by saying that 'do whatever you like and i am not going to move out'. Later he knew from the TV News that the shop has been dismantled by some unknown for which at early morning of last 13 however, his tenant Jet alleged that it was done by him and even a team of City police raided yesterday midnight and asked his family member to come him to the police as soon. He said that he is not going to the police as they are playing foul to him along with him and he does not rely with OC and SP of city police anymore.

PM pays tributes to SV Patel

PIB
New Delhi, Dec 15: The Prime Minister, Narendra Modi has paid tributes to Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel on his Punya Tithi. He remembered Sardar Patel for his exemplary service to the nation and his message of unity and integration. "On his Punya Tithi, salutations to Sardar Patel. We remember his exemplary service and are inspired by his message of unity and integration," the Prime Minister said.

Free health camp

IT News
Thoubal, Dec 15: Shija Breast & Thyroid Clinic conducted a Free Breast & Thyroid Check Health Camp at their Shija Clinic Thoubal on Monday. The team was led by Dr Ajit Lukram, Consultant Surgeon at Shija Hospitals who had done fellowship in Breast & Endocrine Surgery at North Cumbria University, United Kingdom. Detailed examination & relevant investigation were carried out for all the patients at the camp. Risk-scoring for breast-cancer, counseling and distribution of awareness booklets at the end of the counseling were the main highlights of the camp.

Language Research centre open

IT News
Imphal, Dec 15: Declaration ceremony for the opening of Kunrkam Memorial Research Centre for Tribal and Endangered Languages at South East Manipur College, Kamlathabi Chandel District cum Thanks Giving Ceremony of Upa Roel JindaShing Moyon, newly appointed Chief of Kapam Moyon village of Chandel District was held today at the residential venue of Dr. Th Chandramani, Korou, Thongju Part II, Imphal from 10 pm onwards. The programme started with the invocation of the blessings of the almighty, Shidaba Mapu, with the chanting of religious hymn by NK Puthiba Shri, Th. Bishwajit Singh Hon'ble MLA, Thongju Assembly Constituency. Dr. Monoranjan Khuman, National Energy Scientist & Advisor (Internal Security) NE Division, Ministry of Home Affairs, Gol. Col. JC Hajamis, 12th Assam Rifles, Thoubal, Prof. Ch. Yashwanta, Head, Linguistics Dept., Manipur University (MU); Dr. Arambam Anil, State Coordinator cum Joint Director, Sarvashiksha Abhiyan (SSA), Govt. of Manipur; Kh Loyalakpa, Editor, Naharolgi Thoudang; Brojendro Ningomba, Editor, ISTV News; N. Rajendro, President, ICHAM (Information Committee Hill Areas Manipur), Ambition Anghthangmi Thangal attended the function as the Chief Guest, President and the Guest of Honour respectively. Prof. Ch Manglem Singh, Former Head, Obstetrics & Gynaecology Dept., RIMS, Dr. N. Aruna (Assoc Prof., English Dept., Oriental College), Dr. from Gambhir (Former President, MUSU /AMSU & soc Prof., English Dept. MU), Dr Th. Dilipkumar (Former Chairperson, Imphal Urban Cooperative Bank), Md. Alam Azad, Asst. Project Officer, GoM attended the function as special invitees.

Army recruitment rally at Leimakhong

PRO(DEFENCE)
Imphal, Dec. 15: An Army recruitment rally to is scheduled to be conducted at the Football Ground, Kendriya Vidyalaya Leimakhong, Imphal West (Manipur) wef 27 December 2015 to 02 January 2016 for enrolment of Sportsman NCC certificate holder, Sons of Servicemen/ ex-serviceman/war widows as soldier General Duty (GD), Soldier Clerk/Store Keeper, Cook, Inventory Manager, Soldier Technical, Soldier Tradesman into Indian Army for all district of Manipur. The date for online registration of Army recruitment rally has been extended till 17 Dec 15. Nearest Army or Assam Rifles post could be contacted for further assistance and guidance.

24th Imphal Book Fair begins at THAU ground

IT News
Imphal, Dec 15: 7 Days long 24th Imphal Book Fair, 2015 kick off today at Thangmeiband Athletic Union (THAU) Ground, Imphal, jointly organized by State Central Library, Department of Art and Culture, Government of Manipur and Raja Rammohun Roy Library Foundation, Kolkata. L. Nandakumar Singh, MLA of Uripok A/C, Dr Th Khomdong Singh (Retd), Librarian, Consultant, MU, Canchipur and K Radhakumar

Singh, Secretary, Art and Culture, Government of Manipur were chaired as the main guests of today's function. The 7 days long Imphal Book fair begins with a candle lighting by today's guests L. Nandakumar Singh, Th Khomdong Singh and K Radhakumar Singh. Addressing the function, Dr K Sushila Devi, Director of Art and Culture, Government of Manipur said that the Imphal Book Fair has been observing since the year 1991 till now where due to some inconvenience in the 1992 Book Fair was unable to organize. With the participation of 17 firms from the outside state, around 100 stalls are being set up with the participation of different firms from the State, she added. K Sushila further said that looking at the last year participation of 31 firms from the State, this time the said firms could not met as most of the book firms seems to be in the downfall state due to most of the law and order problem face by the State in the running year. All the book stalls are being set up with a deposit payment of Rs 5000 each. Almost all the books available at the stalls are being sold with a discount of 15% from the actual price of the books where the discount could be raise more looking at the buyers. During these 7 days, many programs like cultural shows, painting competitions, meet the stars from the Manipur film industries, recitations, debates for the students and many more will conduct.