

inconvenience of visiting different Government offices for enrolment of different schemes or registering their grievances, he added. Such mission is one of the steps to

Students' body threatens boycotts of 2 MLA over rape issues

IT News Imphal, May 16:

Demanding justice for the rape victims with the rising rates of crime against women in the state, Socialist Students' Union of Manipur (SSUM) has threatened to boycott of two MLAs – one from Thanga and the other from Thangmeiband Assembly Constituency if they fail to stand for the rape victim and deliver justice to the victims who happened to be from their respective constituencies.

Speaking to media persons in a joint press conference organized by SSUM, POFM and Thangmeiband Apunba Nipu Lup (THANIL) at the office of SSUM, Bhushan Longjam, Co-Convenor SSUM expressed disappointment over MLA of Thanga A/C for failing to notice the problems faced by the recent rape victims of their constituencies on the interference by politicians. Victims family has informed that the condition of their daughter is worsening day by day.

North East Dialogue (Amendment)

IT News Imphal, May 15,

Terming the Citizenship (Amendment) Bill as another agenda to suppress the voice and to violate the rights of the Indigenous people North East Dialogue Forum has urged both the Government of India and the Government of Assam to withdraw the Bill. In a press statement, the Forum said that since the last many decades the Indigenous people inhabited in the North East are threatened in their own land due to the domination by the large number of illegal migrants from the neighboring countries which the Government of India had failed to control during the time of migration. "Citizenship (Amendment) Bill is another agenda to suppress the voice and to violate the rights of the Indigenous people by violating the United Nations Declaration on Rights of the Indigenous granting persons b communi Sikhs, Bu and C Afghanis Banglade threat to over the l land", the The state. that ba Accord,

B

IT News Imphal, M

The Col RIMS, Im with Immunoh Transfus organize voluntar camp at Imphal to was spon Blood Ce

Hospital Shifting: JAC calls 48 hours general strike

IT News Imphal, May 15,

JAC formed against the shifting of the District Hospital which was already laid foundation stone at Sagolmang has called 48 hours state wide general strike starting from 5 am of May 19.

This was announced today by the advisor of the JAC Against Unnatural Shifting of district hospital, Imphal East, Sagolmang, MK Jeet, while talking to media persons today.

Convenor of the JAC MK Jeet while speaking to media persons said that Sagolmang being a center of many villages need a hospital to facilitate health care service for all the villages which is about 20 Km from Imphal.

Boy Drown; 1 Dead Body Recovered

IT News Imphal, May 15:

One 14 years youth drown today at Imphal River at around 7 am today while trying to fetch a ball which fell in the river while playing at the bank of the river at Singjamei Wangma Kshetri Leikai. The youth is identified as Ningthoujam Mahesh, son of Ongnam Ningol Ningthoujam Ongbi Memtombi of Mongkhang Lambi, Singjamei Wangma Kshetri Leikai. Mahesh is a student of Catholic School, Canchipur, studying in 9th standard.

On the other hand, a dead body was found near Wangbal Fishery Gate in Wangbal early morning around 5:30 am today. The dead body has been identified as Soibam Bishwanath (23 yrs), son of Soibam Khongamani Singh of Wangjing Heitupokpi Leikai in Thoubal District.

Police personnel of Thoubal police recovered the body and deposited at JNIMS morgue for post mortem.

Tlanglungbung Leikol or Langol Peak garden- A

By- Laishram Ranbir Imphal, May 14,

Once a peak in the legendary myth Khamb-Thoibi of Manipur, where Thoibi came to pick the very special flowers known as Thoibi-Lei from this peak and a historical site for the World War 2 where allied force put up their camps, Langol Peak or Tlanglungbung is now becoming one of the favourite tourist centres in Manipur.

Surrounded by beautiful landscape, hillocks and breathe taking sceneries, Tlanglungbung Leikol or Langol Peak garden lies in the Langol Village of Machi Sub-Division in Chandel District about 60 kms drive from the heart of Imphal city along the Indo-Myanmar road.

"Hearing the folktales told by our elders and forefather of our village Machi since ancestral times about how important is the peak to the people of Manipur and about the mythological tales of Khamba-Thoibi attachment to the peak, I came up with an idea to preserve and built up a garden for the people of Manipur otherwise I wouldn't have never dreamt off in my entire life," D.K Tolshilthang, Proprietor Tlanglungbung

Leikol or Langol Peak garden.

We all know that most of the parks and gardens in the state are set up to provide comfort for the people who wish to visit a place where they can relax and enjoy for sometime but Tlanglungbung Leikol or Langol Peak garden, which is yet to complete is especially set up with a dreamt to preserve its historical facts of the peak and its surrounding areas.

D.K Tolshilthang said "looking at the inspiration of the elders of the villages established in and around the Machi sub-division, the garden is being built up so that one who visits can relax and enjoyed the breath taking views and sceneries surrounding the four corners of the peak as well as the historical tales."

Tlanglungbung Leikol or Langol Peak garden, located in one of the oldest Maring Villages that is flooded with elements of historical importance, began its construction with four entry points in the year 2013 and before the end of the year 2017, it was officially declared open for the public.