Inaugural stones at Khongjom War Complex unveiled by President of India missing

IT News
Imphal, April 26: The inaugural stone of the Khongjom War Monument cum Tourist Center unveiled by the President of India, Pranab Mukherjee on April 23 could not be found at the site and the memorial stone of Khongjom War martyrs inaugurated by the then President VV Giri is also missing from the complex. On the other hand Hindu deity Mahadeva was found in the middle of three pillars erected in memories of the martyrs.

A team of volunteers led by the President of Khongjom War Memorial Trust, Moirangthem Hemanta who went for an inspection visit at the complex expressed shocked to see the condition of the memorial site of the Manipuri Martyrs which was inaugurated by the President of India only 3 days back.

"We could not find the whereabouts of the inaugural stone of the Khongjom War Memorial inaugurated by President of India on April 23, neither the memorial stone inaugurated by the then President VV Giri is not traceable anywhere in the complex", said M Hemanta who is also a spokesperson of the BJP Manipur Pradesh. "We will lodge complaint to the nearest police station regarding the matter besides putting it up to the notice of the central government leadership", Hemanta said in state of anonymity.

The BJP spokesperson further questioned the government authority on the logic behind the erecting of a Hindu Deity Mahadevi in the three memorial pillars erected in memories of the Khongjom War heroes. The memorial stones of the Khongjom War Martyrs which is missing from the complex was inaugurated by the Then President of India VV Giri, on October 21, 1972. The inaugural stone of the Khongjom War Monuments and tourism Complex was unveiled and inaugurated by President Pranab Mukherjee only 3 days back.

"Untraceable of two historic memorial stones that not inaugurated by two presidents of India as a mark of respect and honour to the Martyrs who had sacrificed safeguarding the Independent of Manipur is a direct looting by the present government, this is a serious matter and will be conveyed to the President's office", Hemanta said.

Hemanta further slammed the government for not making convenient to the people of the state who had come to pay tribute to the Manipuri

Hemanta to file FIR; condemns placing of Hindu deity in the middle of memorial pillars; says will report to President and Central govt

Martyrs.

On the other hand, the President of the Khongjom War Memorial Trust also stated that the construction of the complex with an estimated amount of Rs. 28.93 crore was not properly utilize by awarding the work through proper channel.

"The Government had chosen contractor from their pocket and awarded the work without conducting proper tender process", Hemanta lamented. Construction of the war monuments and tourism complex began from 2013 but till this stage it cannot be guarantee on when will it be completed.

"The memorial complex is going to be one of the most unfortunate projects for the state.

He further said that already Rs. 4 crore had been sanction for construction of Public Hall at the memorial complex besides another Rs 3 crores for construction of Tourist lodge. But as of now no such structure is seen inside the complex.

Opposition in RS condemns rustication of JNU students

IT News
New Delhi, April 26: The opposition in the Rajya Sabha on Tuesday condemned the rustication of three students from the Jawaharlal Nehru University (JNU). Raising the issue, CPI-M member Tapan Kumar Sen described the punitive action of the JNU the "most arrogant, anti-democratic act being patronised by the government".

"Rusticating them, depriving them for five years and thereby taking vengeance against their educational career in a very unjust manner - this is a part of this government's project," Sen said. CPI-M leader Sitaram Yechury sought a proper debate on the issue.

CPI leader D Raja also raised the issue. "This house cannot be a mute spectator when such things are happening in JNU. This is very vindictive, revengeful action," Raja said.

Deputy chairman P.J. Kurien said that the universities are autonomous. Yechury countered that statement, saying the university has been established by an act of parliament. Leader of Opposition Ghulam Nabi Azad supported the Left leaders in decrying the punitive action taken by the university. "Universities' atmosphere is being vitiated. It is the HRD ministry which is responsible," Congress leader Anand Sharma said.

The JNU on Monday fined students union president Kanhaiya Kumar and rusticated three other students for taking part in an event to commemorate parliament attack convict Afzal Guru.

While Kanhaiya Kumar was fined Rs.10,000, Anirban Bhattacharya was rusticated till July 15 and barred from the university from July 25 for five years. He can submit his Phd in the July 15-25 period. Bhattacharya and Umar Khalid will lose a semester of their academic session while Mujeeb Gattoo, another student, has been suspended for two semesters, an order from the university proctor said. Khalid also must cough up Rs 20,000 in fine by May 13

India-Pakistan Foreign Secretaries hold bilateral talks on range of issues in Delhi

New Delhi, April 26: Foreign Secretaries of India and Pakistan today held bilateral talks focusing on a range of issues. It is the first such formal meeting between the two top diplomats after talks were deferred in January following the attack by Pakistani terrorists at Pathankot Airbase. In a statement, Ministry of External Affairs spokesperson said, the discussions between the Foreign Secretaries were frank and constructive and both sides raised issues of concern to them.

Mr. Jaishankar emphasised the need for early progress on Pathankot terror attack investigation as well as 26/11 Mumbai terror attack case trial in Pakistan. He also brought up the listing of Jaish e Mohammed leader Masood Azhar in UN Sanctions Committee. He clearly conveyed that Pakistan cannot be in denial on the impact of terrorism on the bilateral relationship. The Foreign Secretary said, terrorist groups based in Pakistan targeting India must not be allowed to operate with impunity.

India also pressed for immediate consular access to Kulbushan Jadhav, former naval officer abducted and taken to Pakistan. The Pakistan Foreign Secretary is in New Delhi on a day-long visit to attend the Senior Officials Meeting of the Heart of Asia - Istanbul Process. Earlier, Mr. Jaishankar met Afghan Deputy Foreign Minister Hekmat Karzai and discussed issues of mutual interests.
