

MU postpones Assistant Registrar written test after DESAM despoiled answer papers

IT News
Imphal, April 3: The written test for recruitment of Assistant Registrar posts in Manipur University has been cancelled after a group of DESAM (Democratic Students Alliance of Manipur) volunteers forcefully enter inside the examination hall and despoiled answer papers today.

According to a source from DESAM, the written test had been disrupted by volunteers of the student body in protest against the improper recruitment of some important posts by the present Vice Chancellor of the varsity, Prof H Nandakumar Sarma.

Apart from showing favoritism to his relatives and close friends, Nandakumar Sarma had made various fraudulent recruitments under his administration, DESAM alleged. While demanding to clarify on improper recruits to various posts, DESAM had sent memorandum to Prime Minister and HRD Ministry. It also imposed ban on further recruitment in the university till a clarification is made from the side of the concerned authority regarding improper recruitments, said the source, who is also an executive member of DESAM.

The DESAM member said that above 50 volunteers of the student body entered inside the examination hall today at around 11.15 AM and snatched away answer papers from the candidates. They then tore and threw away the papers.

In continuation of its advertisement for the recruitment of 4 (four) Assistant Registrar (1 Unreserved, 1 OBC, 1 SC and 1 PWD) posts, the varsity conducted the test at Social Science Block today morning 11 AM.

A total number of 596 applicants were shortlisted in four categories viz Unreserved 214, OBC 280, SC 87 and Physically Handicapped 15 for the Assistant Registrar posts. Meanwhile, the University authority has indefinitely postponed the written examination after the incident.

Media persons wrath over the conduct of MR personnel

IT News
Imphal, April 3: A group of enraged reporters has returned from spot without covering news after they were detained by Manipur Police near 2nd MR battalion complex here today.

According to report, the media persons were trying to meet family members of Pampha Rai (32), d/o Dul Bahadur Rai of 2nd MR Family Line, who was found dead inside a hotel room on Saturday.

However, the reporters were allegedly detained for hours by security personnel deployed at the front gate of 2nd MR. After waiting for around 2 hours the security at the 2nd MR Battalion gate allowed the reporters to get inside the MR Family Line, however they were again detained asking them to wait for permission from Faumei Gonglin (MPS), CO 2nd MR.

The reporters who were enraged by the conduct of the security personnel returned without meeting with the members of the deceased family.

After knowing the misconduct of MR personnel and sending out of reporters without letting them to interact with Pampha Rai's family members, tenants of 2nd MR Family Line have blocked the road connecting North AOC to Chingmeirong Khongnang Ani Karak in the afternoon between 2 to 3.30 pm.

It also reported that the protestors have engaged in a verbal feud with police personnel.

Later, reporters were invited to meet the family members of Pampha Rai at around 3.30 PM today. But they were detained again while adding fuel to the fuming reporters. Annoyed with the conduct of the MR personnel, the group of reporter has returned without meeting the victim's family members.

NIA officer shot dead, wife seriously injured

PTI
New Delhi April 3: An officer posted with the National Investigation Agency (NIA) was shot dead while his wife seriously injured by unidentified bike-borne assailants in the wee hours in Bijnor district of north Indian state of Uttar Pradesh on Sunday.

"Tanzil Ahmad was shot dead by two motorcycle borne persons when he was returning after attending a marriage ceremony with his wife Farzana," IG (Law and Order) Bhagwan Swaroop said. The incident took place at 12:45 AM when Ahmed, an assistant commandant with BSF who was currently on deputation in NIA, was returning from Bijnor.

In New Delhi, NIA IG Sanjeev Kumar termed it as a "planned attack".

"One of our officers, very brave officer Mohammad Tanzil Ahmad had gone to his home to attend a function last night. When he was coming back from the function a planned attack took place on him and he was fired upon.

"He was killed in the firing while his wife was injured. She has been admitted to Fortis Hospital, Noida. He was an assistant commandant with BSF and was on deputation with NIA," he said.

Kumar said Ahmad was an "NIA inspector but back in BSF he was an assistant commandant".

He said the investigations into the killing are on.

"Investigations are on. Right now the UP Police, UP ATS, NIA, the DIG of NIA from Lucknow and his team all of them are there on the spot," he said.

SHO, Bijnor, Rajkumar said the "officer along with his wife was returning from the wedding of his niece when two unidentified bike-borne persons stopped his car and shot at him. He was declared dead at a nearby hospital".

His wife sustained serious injuries in the attack police said. To a question, Swaroop said it is not clear whether Ahmed was part of the team in the Pathankot attack investigation case.

"Only NIA can tell whether he was involved in Pathankot attack investigation case," he said.
