'College authority, police harass NIT Students'

ANI

Jammu (J-K) April 6: The students of Srinagar's National Institute of Technology (NIT) on Wednesday accused the college administration and police of harassing them.

The students complained that when they were trying to walk out of the college premises the administration ordered the police to take charge after which the cops ruthlessly baton-charged them.

"The director called on a meeting with students, there he threatened us and said that if you rake this issue more we will fail you and delay your degrees. At this time, we students got to know about the media presence at the gate of the institution. So, we went to interact with them but were stopped at the gate of the college and then the police baton-charged us. No one was speared, Girls, handicapped all were beaten by the police," said one of the students.

"No one is questioning those who raised anti-national slogans instead we are facing atrocities of the local police and collage administration," said another student.

Unrest was witnessed again at NIT campus yesterday after the scene of clash which took place last week, with outstation students expressing a sense of insecurity and attempting to leave the campus, leading to a confrontation with the police in which some were injured. Tension simmered in the NIT campus last week after India lost the World T20 semi-final to the West Indies.

Some engineering students from outside the state claimed Kashmiri students had chanted anti-India slogans and burst firecrackers after India's defeat.

NIA officer's murder: Sleuths zero in on personal enmity angle

Lucknow, April 6: The Uttar Pradesh police probing the killing of National Investigation Agency (NIA) officer Mohammad Tanzil Ahmed believe personal enmity to be the motive behind the murder on Tuesday, as they released photographs of two unidentified guests at a wedding the cop attended as prime suspect.

A police officer said the investigation team has important leads and the case might be worked out in a day or two, he said.

Eight teams had been constituted to work out the murder case. The teams also probed terror aspects, role of fake Indian currency note and narcotics smugglers and hawala traders active in West UP.

"We tried to find out if the terror outfits retaliated with eliminating a proficient officer", said a police officer. He added there was not enough clues to suggest so.

The modus operandi of the killer also points toward the personal enmity. The shooter fired 24 rounds mortally injuring Ahmed. The killers did not touch the children and his wife received bullet injury since she was seated on the front seat.

Slain NIA officer's wife, who is undergoing treatment in a Noida hospital, is critical but stable. Quashing rumours of her death, authorities at Fortis Hospital in sector 62, Noida, said that her vital parameters are stable and she's being treated in an intensive care unit (ICU).

Farzana, 40, was brought to Fortis Hospital with four bullet injuries on Sunday. She was hit in her abdomen and leg, hospital sources said. One of the bullets has pierced through her intestine, and a life-saving surgery was performed immediately after she was brought to the hospital emergency.

SP, Bijoor, Subhash Singh Baghel, said, "On Monday the police team scanned the video footage of the wedding but family members failed to identify two persons present in the wedding. Now, one person has been identified as Aarshi, a family friend. The identification of the second person is yet to be established."

During investigation, cops found that Ahmed's family had a property dispute with villagers. Ahmed had visited his native place, Sahaspur, frequently in recent days. On Tuesday, family members identified one person in the wedding video footage.

The second person is yet to be identified. Talking to HT, IGP, Bareilly Zone, Vijay Singh Meena said: "Police have not released the video footage and photographs of the motorcycle-borne people moving on Seohara-Sahaspur highway on Saturday night. They are on job and the case is likely to be worked out soon," he said.
