As part of the celebration floral tribute was also paid by leishemba sanajaoba before the photo of martyrs of the Kangleipak ningtam lalhou- the freedom fighters of erstwhile Kangleipak and present Manipur. Addressing the gathering as resource person, Naorem Sanatomba, Assistant professor, Manipuri Department, Manipur University pointed out the need to institutionalise patriotism in the state, while highlighting the contributions made by students in today's polarised society of Manipur. He also appealed to inculcate the sense of response and responsibility among people. Sapam Dilip, Lecturer of LMS law College Imphal said that the main objective of celebrating the patriots' day is remembering the sacrifices made by our forefathers and to follow their path of "selflessness" for the betterment of Kangleipak (Manipur). Stating that leaders are not born but should be made by the people to lead them, Dilip said that after Hijam Irabot, not a single mass leader has been produced in Manipur. "The people of Manipur do not need a thousand IAS officers, but a single leader, who is sincere and responsible. The people shouldn't wait for leaders to be born because our leaders should be made by ourselves," Dilip said. Other speakers also emphasized on the need to include patriotism in the academic curriculum in order to instill the sense of love for his/her country and willingness to sacrifice for it. They also expressed to celebrate the patriots' day in a meaningful manner and organise "Athoubasing-gee Numit" over the years from today at different places across the state.

Passing of new ILPS Bill: Manipur Govt. still fails to convince CCpur JAC

IT News
Imphal, Aug 13: The draft Bill prepared by the state government which has been made public through newspapers and website inviting if any, to sort out the differences between the various communities of the state has failed to convince the JAC formed against the ILPS related Bills as it strongly opposed any introduction such Bill in the state.

In a press hand out, the JAC drafting of a new Bill is an insult to the Tribal Martyrs and tribal people in Manipur. The JAC form against the Bill in an email to media house also stated that Hill area was never together with the valley area as it was governed by separate administration while the valley with Manipur Darbar. It said the then King of Manipur signed merger agreement with the Indian union only with the valley area measuring 26,500 hectares. "In fact, the merger agreement with the Indian Union signed by the Manipur's Maharaja Bodhachandra Singh extended only the valley area of the present Manipur.... And not a single inch of Hill Areas", the public appealed distributed by the JAC stated. The content of the 'public appeal' distributed by the JAC has the potential to incite hate felling among the various communities of the state as it mention sentimental issues regarding the territorial boundary of the erstwhile kingdom.
