

Senior citizens to monitor malpractice in electoral politics

IT News
Imphal, Aug. 2: Senior Citizens For Society, Manipur has come up with the idea of creating large scale awareness among the people of the state about the need for conducting a free and fair election. In a press meet held today at Manipur Press Club, Majorkhul, Imphal General Secretary of the Society Prof L. Sadananda said that the society will start monitoring the malpractice in electoral politics in the upcoming state assembly election scheduled in 2017.

He said that due to the lack of effective governance or non performing government, the people of Manipur have faced countless number of problems in the state. All these countless numbers of problems could have been avoided if malpractice in electoral politics is prevented, therefore, senior citizens for society, Manipur strongly feel the need for organising a massive campaign to make people understand about to elect qualified representatives, he added. L. Sadananda Singh also said that too much corruption in politics and too much dirt in our electoral systems is the root of mis-governance. Buying or selling of votes during election have been an open secret, yet none have not spoken any words against such kind of wrong doing as the culture of silence have been adapted as a result of our indifference but now it is the duty of our well-meaning citizens to act in a positive direction, he added.

L. Sadananda Singh further said that in order to establish a good and effective government in Manipur, we the people of the state have to choose a responsible and dutiful representatives from amongst ourselves and for this purpose initiation of a vigorous campaign for a free and fair election for the forthcoming Election of Manipur which will be held in the year 2017.

To take up the necessary steps, a monitoring group/joint action committee for free and fair election of Manipur will monitor the electoral process and will also fight the illegal activities of any of the candidates contesting in the election, he added. Khaidem mani, Secretary of Senior Citizens for Society, Manipur said that Senior Citizens for the Society has convened a meeting on coming August 21, 2016 at 1pm in order to achieve the aims and objectives for the monitoring committee/joint action committee on free and fair election, Manipur 2017. A meeting of the civil society organisations, NGOs, Students' Unions, Women's Organisations, Meira Paibis and Clubs etc, was also held on July 23, 2016 and the same will be invited by the Senior Citizens for the Society for the said meeting to be held on August 21, he added.

JAC demand punishment of doctors responsible for the death of patient

IT News
Imphal, August 2: JAC Against the Un-Natural Death of Laishram (O) Rasamani Devi today demanded doctors responsible for the death to award befitting punishment either by sending them of the state or by taking up befitting action.

Convener of the JAC S Kullachandra Singh, while speaking to media persons at Manipur Press Club today said that Rasamani was evacuated at RIMS casualty wards on July 27, 2016, and because of the negligence of the doctors posted there on the day, he said the RMO as well as the PG doctors failed to listen to the plea of the patient party to give attention to Rasamani as something unusual was seen developing on her after injecting dextrose. He further added that had the doctors listen and gave some attention she could have been saved.

Kullachandra further said the JAC will precede serious form of agitation if the RIMS authority failed to provide proper report on the cause of the death and punished those responsible for her death. The RIMS authority is conducting an enquiry to the dead and a report is likely to present soon on August 4.

The six NSCN (IM) cadres, who were allegedly running the centre, were also held.

Manipur Maoist warns school traders from contesting election

IT News
Imphal, August 2: Maoist Communist Party Manipur (MCPM) has warned school traders from contesting the general assembly 2017 alleging them of using school students as shield while looting the public in broad daylight in the pretext of promoting and upliftment of the education system of the state.

A statement of the outfit said that the founders of the EK Higher Secondary School, Sangakpham, the Zenith Higher Secondary school, Airport Road and the Little Master Higher Secondary school, Samurou are preparing to contest the upcoming election after collecting huge amount of money from their respective schools.

The outfit terms their move as a means to reserve a place for themselves in the society so that they can earn more money and power with the support of the puppet government of India. The rebel group said that these school founders have been using the students in the pretext of making education sector a free zone to loot the public in broad day light. While in reality they are converting the education sector into a business sector where they turn it as selling commodities. Through means adopted in the name of promoting education like charging of excess fee, selling of school uniform and other compulsory item which were compelled to buy to students, these founders are looting the common people.

The outfit also stated that the founder of Zenith Higher Secondary school is an unfit teacher who trades his own service. It also expressed suspicion about his involvement in drug-smuggling in hands with those drug owners who were caught at Airport. On the other hand, the owner of the Little Master Higher Secondary school is also found to be unaware of human-value, who considered human life to be acceptable as there were evidence that he compromise life with money.

The outfit also charged founder of EK Higher Secondary school as traders of education sectors. It further said that if these founders wish to contest the upcoming election they have to transfer their authority over the school to the public and handover the money collected and collected from the students to the people.

The outfit put these conditions as the only option if they want to go for election. The party also warn serious consequences if any sort of protest against the dictate of the party is sponsored using meira paibi or students.
