Olympic Games to formally kick off on August 6

Agency
Imphal, Aug 4: Less than forty hours remain for the 31st Summer Olympic Games which are set to begin in the Brazilian city of Rio de Janeiro. Although the Group stage of Women's Football got underway last evening, the Games will formally kick off with an opening ceremony at 4:30 AM Indian Time on Saturday. Known as the world's biggest sporting event, the creation of Olympics was inspired from the ancient Olympic Games which were held in Olympia, Greece from 8th century BC to 4th century AD. The Games, then, were religious and athletic festivals held every four years at the sanctuary of Zeus, an ancient Greek God. The evolution of the Olympic Movement during the 20th and 21st centuries resulted in several changes to the Games such as Winter Games for ice and winter sports, Paralympic Games for differently-abled, and Youth Games for teenage athletes. In the modern era, the first Games were held in 1896 at Athens, two years after Pierre de Coubertin, a French educator and historian, founded the International Olympic Committee. The Games had 241 athletes from 14 nations in 43 events. Now, Rio will see the participation of nearly 11,000 athletes from 205 countries in 306 events. India will field its biggest contingent with almost 120 athletes.

Thanga Gram Panchayat questioned livelihood of fisherfolks

IT News
Imphal, Aug 4: The Thanga Development Committee strongly condemned the violent police action against the peaceful protest by fish vendors of Thanga Ething against the eviction orders of their sheds causing serious injury to a number of people. Alleging the state security forces of not maintaining procedures for dispersing crowds, a press release of the Committee demanded a judicial inquiry into the excessive police action on August 3 at Sendra foothill in which 8 persons were wounded, three of them seriously in tear-gas firing. It may be recalled that the confrontation started when an eviction drive was carried out on the order of the SDO

Moirang at a piece of reclaimed land on which a fish market is being developed and maintained by the locals of Thanga at the foothill of Sendra for their livelihood. Claiming the contested area to be under the jurisdiction of Thanga Gram Panchayat and outside the jurisdiction of Notified area of Moirang Municipal Council, members of Thanga Gram Panchayat alleged that the plan to develop a parking at the spot is at the behest of Corporate House at Classic Sendra and at the cost of fishermen and women, the release questioned the fate of the poor fish vendors as also the authority of Moirang Municipality Council to undertake activities outside its jurisdiction.

GST will simplify doing business in the country: Jaitley

Courtesy: AIR
New Delhi, Aug 4: Finance Minister Arun Jaitley said doing business will become easier once Goods and Services Tax GST is rolled out and it would help a large body of traders and citizens. Addressing a press conference in New Delhi today, the Minister said GST is a major step forward in the direction of having a uniform tax in the country. The Minister said the rates of most of the commodities will gradually come down under the new indirect tax regime.

He said passage of GST Bill in the Rajya Sabha demonstrates inherent maturity of Indian politics. The Finance Minister said government had marathon rounds of consultations and Centre was accommodative of various views but without compromising on the fundamentals of the bill. He said state governments were overwhelming in their support of the Bill as they felt it would help their revenue. The Minister also credited public opinion for playing a significant role in the passage of GST Bill.

Mr Jaitley said Model GST Bill has 233 odd clauses and 40,000 pages of representation have been received from industry in two months. He informed that a team has been formed to go through the representations and do the needful. Revenue Secretary Hasmukh Adhia, who was also present in the press conference told reporters that 60 thousand central and state government officials are to be trained on GST laws and IT framework by March next year. He said the GST is targeted to be roll out from 1st of April 2017.
