

Sit in protest at Singjamei Bazar against "Wanted" tag on Kh. Ratan

Preponement without proper notification procedure make more than 300 candidates to miss B Ed entrance examination

IT News
Imphal, July 10: Threatening with police action and FIRs, a large number of candidates who are to appear for the written test for admission to Bachelor of Education (B Ed) course from the DM College of Teacher Education Imphal were briefly detained inside the campus by an employee of the college. The incident happened when about three hundred candidates coming to sit for the test started breaking the padlock of the office of the principal on learning that the test was earlier scheduled for today was preponed to July 9. The agitated students shouted demands for re-examination and condemned the conduct of college authority. According to Amar Sheik, a 21 year old candidate from Yairipok, the admit cards issued on July 3 has the date of examination printed as July 10 while cards issued on July 10 have the original print struck out and replaced with July 9 as the date of examination. Interestingly, the notice for preponement of the written test was published in only a single local Manipuri paper. The candidate expressed suspicion of the concern officials colluding with a few unscrupulous elements to provide opportunity for selection to a selected few. Another candidate from Saikhul stated that there is no circulation of Manipuri newspaper in the hill regions of the state. Moreover, there was no intimation about the preponement either through e-mail or by telephone, the details of which are provided in the application form for the test. A team of City Police tried to pacify the agitated crowd, and emboldened by the police presence, an employee of the college started threatening the agitating students. An impromptu sit-in-protest was also organized at the campus. Meanwhile, Th Ibetombi Devi, Principal of the College was not available for comment which could have shed some light to the whole unfortunate incident. The total intake of candidates for the course is to be 1353. According to the notice, the reason for the preponement was the scheduling of NET examination on July 10, the same date fixed for the B Ed test originally.

Trampled dreams and dismissed destiny

IT News
Imphal, July 10: The state government has been neglecting the interests and concerns of disabled persons and is keeping them separated from society; according to Khoirakpam Bhudhinanda, a 75% blind person who has brought many medals and participated in national and international athletic meets.

The 25 year old athlete with disability from Thanga Ething Mamang Leikai, son of Kh. Chinglensana is now presently staying at takyel along with his elder brother. Among the 5 members of the family, his mother and younger brother are also blind leaving the responsibility of the family on his father who work as fisherman and elder brother who is a home tutor at Takyel area.

the blind athlete bagged silver medal in two events at the 17th National Sport Meet for Blind 2010, while during the 18th, 19th National sport meet for blind in 2012 and 2014, he got gold medals in three event- shot-put, long jump and javelin throw. In 2013 he got gold medal in 4BSA national power lifting championship was conferred the title of "Strongman". For state level competitions he got uncountable no. of medals and achievements. He also missed the Glasgow 2014 Common wealth Games due to delay in passport arrangement.

During an interaction with our reporter he dejectedly narrated that the state government never recognise the achievements of disabled sport persons as normal athletes do from the government's side. The government should know and give the respect as the work of the disable athletes who brought medal and name are also for the state, he added. Reacting to the ignorance of state government he said that he never get any government support. He further said that persons with disabilities cannot be eradicated as they are also humans and belong with human civilisation and he should accept the truth. Without development of People with Disorders (PWD), society cannot be called as developed by developing only normal people. So we need co-operation and support to each other so that we can share a common life and goal among the society.

He further appeals to everybody to refrain from showing pity at the sight of a disabled person as such misplaced expression of sympathy hurts a lot to the disable person when they hear such words. "Yes PWD needs people's sympathy, support and encouragement but such word must be kept inside our heart and instead show it in the form of action for the support of the PWD" he added. Despite the enviable list of achievements in sports given his drawbacks and disabilities, Budhinanda is really good in the field of education, he is the highest mark achiever in the history of Manipur in class 10 exam conducted by board of secondary education Manipur by a disable person.

He secured 75% in the 2014 BOARD exam and received the Nirmal Kumar memorial award 2014.

He disclosed that he even stopped attending classes during his schooling days due to harassment and ignorance by the teacher and student even when he was the top in the class. He always requested the teacher to read the question aloud during the exam and to repeat what written on the blackboard. Sometimes even the teachers made snide remarks. "Such harassments became a normal thing to us living with disabilities but i never give-up" he added.

This year he cleared the class 12 examination from Model Higher Secondary School of Takyel and he is the only student from amongst the boys who got first division from the school. He used to read through copying by Braille method what the teacher taught during the class and types that into laptop using Job Access With Speech (JAWS) System which reads out the typed keys, and for Manipuri subject someone used to read the books which he recorded in his laptop playing it repeatedly.

His dreams lay shattered today as he is forced to withdraw admission from DU due to the financial constraints commented Budhinanda who always dreamt of becoming an IAS by appearing the UPSC exam and he always consider New Delhi the right place for the blind person as there is lot of respect in the white stick used by blind person.

"Now I don't have any dream or aim and don't know what to do for the future. "Let my destiny decide for me" he concluded, a single drop of tear streaming down the side of his face.

Dr Deben should resign from JNIMS: KCP Poirei Meitei Lup

IT News
Imphal, July 10: Raising serious allegation of securing the post of Director, JNIMS by furnishing fake certificate, the Kangleipak Communist Party Poirei Meitei Lup today states that Dr Laishram Deben Singh, present Director of JNIMS should resign from the institute. A press release of the proscribed group stated that Dr Deben has never been certified as a Professor according to the records of Medical Council of India, disclosing that the MCI have previously announced that the post of Professor claimed by Dr Deben is null and void. The release also states that if Dr Deben, a corrupted and unscrupulous individual, does not resign within 5 days the party will take up further steps on the matter.

Corrigendum

The sentence "The JAC will wait till the hearing comes against the people's motive than the JAC will get ready for more strong agitation" carried under the heading "Mass sit-in protest planned against Wanted tag" was not mentioned anywhere in the press release of the JAC and should read as "The JAC will organize mass sit-in protests against the Wanted tag for which the support of the indigenous people is needed."

CIRCA continues campaign for self-determination

IT News
Imphal, July 10: As part of the ongoing Campaign of Coalition for Indigenous Rights Campaign (CIRCA) on Manipur's demand for home rule and restoration of pre-merger political status, a public meeting was held at Lamphel Sanakeithel Community Hall today organised by Lamphel Sanakeithel Development Authority (LSKDA). Cultural activist Ningthouja Lancha said that it is a mockery to the people's movement of the state by the government that the base year for the new draft of the ILPS will be 1972. The same government has already made an agreement to protect the indigenous people during the go back foreigner movement in 1980. It shows that the government did not respect the movement of the people where many lives were lost for the protection of indigenous people.

He further added that Manipur has been facing lots problems including migration of non-local, human rights violation, issue of Iron Chau

Sharmila and AFSPA 1958, arguments on integrity and such other issues confused people working for a permanent solution. He said that these problems only can be solved through home rule and restoration of pre-merger political status of Manipur. Dr. Khomdun Lisam, ret'd. Project Director of Manipur Aids Control Society, Somendra Thokchom Convenor of CIRCA and Khwairakpam Raghunani vice president of LAKDA graced the function as presidium members.

Supreme Court: Armed Forces don't have Immunity from Civilian Trials

IT News
Imphal, July 10: The central government must heed a Supreme Court ruling on the importance of holding security forces accountable for human rights violations, and repeal the Armed Forces (Special Powers) Acts which grant soldiers virtual immunity from prosecution in civilian courts, Amnesty International India said today. The Court is hearing a public interest litigation filed by Imphal-based NGO Human Rights Alert and a victims' group, seeking its intervention in the cases of 1528 alleged extrajudicial executions in Manipur from 1979 to 2012. In its ruling on 8 July, it said that all the allegations needed to be looked into, and offences committed by security forces could be prosecuted in civilian courts. It asked for more information about the cases. Proceedings will resume in four weeks. "The Court's ruling makes it clear that security force personnel accused of human rights violations must not be allowed to get away with impunity. It offers a ray of hope to the families of hundreds of people who were allegedly extrajudicially executed in Manipur over decades," said Anjli Sen, Project Manager at Amnesty International India. The Court stated: "If any death was unjustified, there is no blanket immunity available to the perpetrator(s) of the offence. No one can act with impunity particularly when there is a loss of an innocent life. ... from the point of view of a citizen, living under the shadow of a gun that can be wielded with impunity, outright acceptance of the proposition advanced [that Army personnel have immunity from civilian trials] is equally unsettling and demoralizing, particularly in a constitutional democracy like ours."

"We welcome the judgment. It is a positive one. We shall have to wait on what the court decides on our demand for a special investigation team to investigate all the cases. The real sting is yet to come on the nature of investigations on the cases," said Babloo Loitongbam, Director, Human Rights Alert.

In January 2013, the Court had appointed a three-member commission to determine whether six cases identified by the court were 'encounter' deaths - where security forces had fired in self-defence against members of armed groups - or extrajudicial executions. The Commission found that all the cases involved extrajudicial executions, and also said that the Armed Forces (Special Powers) Act (AFSPA) was widely abused by security forces in Manipur.
