Tension runs high among villagers in Manipur-Nagaland border after an excavator has been confiscated by Nagaland authority

IT News
Imphal, June 21: Tension runs high among villagers in Manipur-Nagaland border in Ukhrul district after armed villagers of Matikhru on Nagaland side had confiscated an excavator (JCB) used by villagers of Jessami of Manipur for construction of drain for diversion of flood water.

District administration of Ukhrul district, in a report to the Chief Secretary of Manipur address the situation to be out of control as the armed village guard of Matikhru refused to let go the JCB vehicles which is kept in the middle of the Thetsü River till today since June 17. Official report said that Sub Divisional officer of Jessami had gone the disputed site and as reported by him the JCB is kept in the middle of the river, which he said that there is danger of washing away if rains.

As the villagers of Jessami too prepared to act for getting back the JCB and the armed villagers of Matikhru village do not retreat their stand, situation may turn hostile, said a report reaching here.

In charged Deputy Commissioner of Ukhrul District D Gangmei, in his report to the state government, stated that he had talk Additional Deputy of Meluri (Nagaland side) and in response the Additional Deputy said that the JCB is at their custody. The Nagaland government authority declined to co-operate the district administration authority in their effort to calm down the situation. The Nagaland government authority had flatly denied handing over the JCB to the Jessami Villagers, the report added.

Additional report from Eastern Mirror, a Nagaland based newspaper said that the district administration and police personnel of Meluri division under Nagaland and Jessami sub-division, under Manipur were put to task after a border dispute arose between the villagers of Matikhru (Nagaland) and Jessami (Manipur).

The newspaper reported that Jessami villagers along with the help of an excavator (JCB) intentionally diverted the course of the Thetsü River on the villagers of Matikhru side also reacted.

It said according to EAC Lephori (Nagaland), Kedale Sebu, she suspected the move of the Jessami villagers as in a way to encroach the land (paddy fields) of Matikhru villagers. Matikhru falls under Lephori sub-division.

"In changing the course of the river, they (Jessami) must have attempted to expand their paddy fields, while putting greater risks to the paddy fields of Nagaland side which belongs to Matikhru villagers," she said.

Going by history, it was learned that the said area (Paddy fields) where Jessami villagers interfered, earlier belonged to Soraphong, a village on Manipur side. It was learned that the Jessami villagers interfered after some of their villagers bought the paddy fields from Soraphong villagers.

According to sources, earlier there was no dispute between the villagers of Matikhru and Soraphong. The dispute started only after the Jessami villagers bought the area/paddy fields from Soraphong villagers.

The ADC of Meluri, John Tulsie Sangtam, who visited the dispute area, said the administration have seized the excavator, further informing that they have asked the Jessami villagers to change the river course to its original position.

The new river course, if not changed, also has every chance to destroy the paddy fields of Matikhru and Kanjang, also a Naga village near the border area. As per reports, talks are on between the district administrations from both Nagaland and Manipur.

CorCom appeals for prevention of India's entry to NSG

IT News
Imphal, June 21: India, who is not a signatory to the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty (NPT), neither a party to a nuclear weapon-free zone treaty nor a party to Comprehensive Test Ban Treaty (CTBT) is trying to be a member of The Nuclear Suppliers Group (NSG), founded in response to the Indian nuclear test in May 1974 thereby sabotaging the existing procedural norms of admission to NSG, alleged a press release of the proscribed Coordination Committee (CorCom) of four revolutionary organisations namely People's Revolutionary Party of Kangleipak, People's Revolutionary Party of Kangleipak (Progressive), Revolutionary People's Front and United National Liberation Front which states that it is India's concealed agenda to enhance its nuclear weapon productions to become a powerful player in Asia, particularly in South Asia unleashing nuclear weapon competition and strengthen its domination upon smaller nations in South and South-East Asia such as Bangladesh, Bhutan, Maldives, Myanmar, Nepal, Pakistan and Sri Lanka. India's finance expansionism is spreading in Southeast Asia under the cover of its Act East Policy. Alleging that Government of India indulges in waging proxy war through creating counter-revolutionary armed groups and communal forces, the release request the elite member states of NSG not to allow India's entry into NSG without honouring the present criteria of admission and without any meaningful commitment to Nuclear disarmament treaties as well.
