

KCP MC imposed ban to the recruitment of Nurses at JNIMS

IT News
Imphal, Nov 9: An armed group called KCP MC has imposed ban to the recruitment of nurses at JNIMS alleging massive irregularities during the selection process. The outfit points out one after another on how the Director of JNIMS has been misleading the people in his effort to select his own people.

Union Minister's visit cancelled

IT News
Imphal, Nov 9: Scheduled visit of the Union Minister of State (Independent Charge) for Power, Coal New & Renewable Energy and Mines, Government of India, on November 10, 2016 at Bendamei Village, Senapati District for inauguration of Power Supply and distribution of LED Bulbs has been cancelled, said a statement of the DIPR.

NEFDA 2016

IT News
Imphal, Nov 9: BK events and entertainment in association with Raj Enterprises is hosting a North East Fashion Design Awards (NEFDA) 2016, powered by Northeast India Fashion and Design Council on November 11, 2016 at DM College Multi Purpose Hall. Speaking to the speaking person in a press meet held at Manipur press club today Rajkumar Sachin Singh, Prop. Raj Enterprises said that North East Fashion Design Awards (NEFDA) 2016 will be the first of its kind in the whole of Northeast India and NEFDA is endeavor upcoming fashion designers of the state in the field of fashion and garment Industry.

Akhilesh urges Centre to ensure no adverse impact on poor: Currency ban

AIR
Lakhnow, Nov 9: Samajwadi Party leader and Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Akhilesh Yadav has urged the Centre to ensure that the decision to ban Rs 1,000 and Rs 500 currency notes does not have an adverse impact on the poor, farmers and villagers. Reacting to the Centre's decision, in an official release, Mr. Yadav also urged the centre to arrange for special camps in villages for exchanging currency notes as banks were not easily accessible in the rural areas.

Middle class people faces the first blow of Modi's demonitization Shops and even govt. cash counters in Imphal refuse to accept Rs. 500 and Rs 1000 currency note

IT News
Imphal, Nov 9: The Narendra Modi Government's move to demonetize the Rs 500 and Rs 1000 currency note from midnight of November 8 has given a severe blow to the day today life of the common people as shops owners which deals with day today essential commodities refuse to accept Rs. 500 or Rs 1000 notes to buy goods. Even electric consumers here in Imphal had to return back without recharging their meter as the electric prepaid recharge counter refuse to accept the two currency note. Many common people and small time business runner which depend on electricity fear black out as their electricity balance is overdue. On the other hand middle class family who use to survive on small earning and which runs their family by buying goods everyday from grocery shops have to return back without buying any commodities for the family. As prizes of essential commodities gone up during the last couple of years each middle class family considered stocking either Rs. 500 or Rs. 1000 currency note to make alive their family. Imphal's main business hubs Paona Market, Thangal Market among others shut their shutters. Most small shops run to support their family too have been shut down in the afternoon. For quite some times in the morning some grocery shops are seen opened but refuse to accept the Rs. 500 and Rs. 1000 currency note on the ground that they didn't have any change. Banks too are not open today in Imphal, as report said that as the decision to demonetize the Rs 500/1000 currency note came in a hasty manner, the employees here in the banks left with no choice but to close the doors. On the other hand good number of high class people who are using net banking facilities and who are living in towns with credit or ATM cards cash payment are somehow relieved as they are able to get the essential commodities. In the meantime, some people are reported to have been offering change for Rs 500/1000 currency notes by charging Rs. 100 for each 500.

President Pranab Mukherjee says bold step of govt will help

With inputs from PIB
New Delhi, Nov 9: President Pranab Mukherjee has welcomed the Government's decision. In a series of tweets, Mr Mukherjee said, the bold step of the Government will help unearth unaccounted money and counterfeit currency. On Tuesday evening, Prime Minister Narendra Modi called on President Mukherjee and briefed him of the decision of the Government to declare that all Rs. 1000 and 500 currency notes will cease to be legal tender from midnight of November 8, 2016. He also informed that these notes can be used for certain purpose for a limited period. President Mukherjee welcomed the bold step taken by the Government which will help unearth unaccounted money as well as counterfeit currency. He called upon people not to panic and to follow the Government's guidelines for exchanging currency notes of Rs 1000/500 denomination available with them. He reminded that all currency notes below Rs 500 will continue as legal tender. President Mukherjee called upon all persons to avail upon the opportunity provided by the Government to exchange currency notes of Rs 1000 and 500 denomination for new legal tender.

SMDC Association of Chandel decry irregularities in school kitchen constructions

IT News
Imphal, Nov 9: School Management and Development Committee Association Chandel District strongly urged the concern authority to make accountability regarding the construction of School kitchen shed. According to a press statement of the committee the work order for construction of kitchen shed has been issued on 23/5/2016 and the concerned authority without any charity of the programme implementation has decided to handover the work to an NGO called NECTAR which is still unknown to the SMDC of every Village School. "This is a violation of Right To Education (RTE) Act and hindrance to School Development in remote areas. Therefore, the concern authority to release the said fund through SMDC account failing which an intense democratic form of agitation will be carried for the welfare of schools in the Chandel District", the statement added. It further added that so far no such NGO like NECTAR approach for the construction of School kitchen shed. This shows that there is mismanagement of funds by concern authority. Without any knowledge of the School Management and Development Committee (SMDC) there is hope of NGO & NECTAR to construct School Kitchen. The committee appealed the concern authority to ponder upon the menace and release the fund to concern SMDC to avoid any misunderstanding in the society. Failing of which the concern authority will held responsible for any untoward incident in Chandel District the statement warned.

CM meets ATSUM and MUTSU representatives

IT News
Imphal, Nov 9: In his effort to settle the ongoing crisis over reservation of students to post graduate admission at Manipur University, Chief Minister of Manipur Okram Ibobi had called on the representatives of the All Tribal Students' Union Manipur (ATSUM) and Manipur University tribal Students' Union (MUTSU) yesterday evening. The Chief Minister during the meeting appealed the student body to reconsider the economic blockade called on both the National Highway as the government is deem to solve the matter through proper understanding.

BJP welcomes govt's step, Congress and TMC criticize

AIR
New Delhi, Nov 9: Several Union Ministers have also hailed the Centre's decision. Home Minister Rajnath Singh described the Prime Minister's decision as "courageous and bold" and said India's fight against corruption and terrorism will now be strengthened. Information and Broadcasting Minister M Venkaiah called it a surgical strike by Narendra Modi on corruption and black money. BJP President Amit Shah said that the decision will immensely help eliminating the corruption. Complimenting the Centre and the Prime Minister for taking a tough but timely and path-breaking measures, Mr Shah said, the decision was needed to uproot corruption, black money, hawala and fake currency rackets. HRD Minister Prakash Javadekar too joined in to appreciate the move. Tourism and Culture Minister Mahesh Sharma tweeted that the initiatives to stop black money, after the surgical strikes, show the courage of the Prime Minister. However, Congress raised several questions over government's decision and expressed apprehension that it could create a lot of problems for traders, small-time businessmen and housewives. Party chief spokesperson Randeep Surjewala, however, made it clear that the party would always support meaningful, specific and pointed steps to unearth black money. Reacting to the decision, Jharkhand Chief Minister Raghubar Das said, the Prime Minister had said about rooting out black money and decision would be a big step towards that. Maharashtra Chief Minister Devendra Fadnavis stated that the decision is a milestone in India's progress. Mr. Fadnavis said that people will support and participate like true soldiers in this war against black money. Himachal Pradesh Chief Minister Virbhadra Singh has termed the ban as a bold and welcome step. In a statement the Chief Minister said that however certain norms to facilitate the general public like wagers, paid employees, farmers, small traders and those few who have kept meeting exigencies should have been given ample time or systematic arrangement thereof to exchange the currency. Andhra Pradesh Chief Minister N Chandrababu Naidu welcomed the announcement. He recalled that the Telugu Desam Party had been at the forefront in pushing for a ban on high-value currency notes. West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee in a tweet termed the move as "draconian". In Kerala, the CPI(M)-led LDF government criticised the move saying the move would not wipe out black money from the country.

Donald Trump is the next US President after stunning election win over shell-shocked Hillary Clinton

By- Jack Blanchard
Courtesy: UK Mirror

New York, Nov 9: Donald Trump has stunned the entire world with a crushing victory in the US Presidential election. The billionaire Republican defied the opinion polls to defeat hot favourite Hillary Clinton and become the next President-elect of America. The respected Associated Press news agency called the election at 7.30am after an agonising wait as projected victory in Wisconsin tipped Trump over the 270 electoral votes he needed. Mr Trump's Idaho campaign director Layne Bangerter said: "The voice of the people has risen up." Stock markets plunged around the world and Clinton supporters wept openly in New York City as the scale of Mr Trump's success became clear. He will now be sworn in as the 45th American President on January 20, 2017. The nation is now preparing itself for a new leader who has previously vowed to ban Muslims from entering the country, build a huge wall along the border with Mexico and immediately repeal President Obama's healthcare for the poor. The Republicans will also have control of Congress and be able to appoint conservative judges to the Supreme Court - giving them total power over every arm of American government.

The website for Canadian citizenship applications crashed last night as thousands of Americans logged on. The final opinion polls had suggested Mr Trump was trailing his rival by three or four percentage points as voting began on Tuesday - but he made a mockery of every prediction.

Comparisons were immediately drawn with June's shock Brexit vote in Britain, as white working class voters turned out in their millions to deliver a brutal slap to the political elite.

Gloating former UKIP leader Nigel Farage said: "2016 is going to be the year of two political revolutions.

"I thought Brexit was big - but boy this is going to be even bigger." Former Republican vice-President candidate Sarah Palin told Sky News: "We've just done what y'all have done -sweeping our own porches before we sweep other people's."

French National Front leader Marine Le Pen also sent her congratulations and will now fancy her own chances in next year's French Presidential election.

(Contd. on page 2)