IT news
Imphal, IT News: Important documents including two Computer desktop sets have been looted from Indian Overseas Bank, Thoubal District branch.

Staffs of the Bank came to know about the looting of the bank only today morning when they come to office at around 10 am. report said that the looters did not touch the cash locker and no money was found missing.

The looters seem to have been searching for important documents inside the bank as papers and files including Almirah used to keep bank's important documents were vandalised and found scattered today morning.

There is no idea of when the looting took place as yesterday is bank holiday due to Sunday.

The Indian Overseas Bank is located at the back side of Punjab national bank, Thoubal Branch at Thoubal Keithel Leitanthem leirak. As per report the branch is run by 5 staffs including the manager Kh. Surbala.

Police which rushed to the bank collected finger prints marks left by the looters and investigation has been started to find the culprits involved in the looting. Details of documents losts have not been confirmed as of now but important dates stored in the two desktop is now in the hand of the looters.

Police are looking on whether the looters entered the bank from the back side or not. But evidences collected suggested that the looters might have entered from the back side of the bank. CCTV camera lines fitted at almost all corners of the bank were delinked by taking out the wires.

Mention may be made that this is the second time that Nationalised bank in Thoubal district has been looted. Earlier in July 5 this year some youths looted huge amount of cash and gold from HDFC Bank Thoubal branch.

Yaithibi Loukon fiasco: BJP throws snowball at CM and Congress govt

IT news
Imphal, IT News: Taking a dig at Chief Minister, Okram Ibobi Singh for his retort against the remark of Union MoS for Youth and Affairs and Sports, Vijay Goel, who stated that the Yaithibi Loukon is not suitable for establishment of the proposed National Sports University as it is a low lying and agricultural land, today Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP), Manipur Pradesh has termed the incumbent state government as irresponsible and it Cabinet as imposters.

Addressing a group of media people at the state head office of BJP, Manipur Pradesh here at Nityapat Chuthek, Vice President of the Party, Moirangthem Asnikumar Singh said that it is unfortunate for the people of the state that Chief Minister, Ibobi-led government is trying to mislead the mass only to conceal the secretplots and interests of Chief Minister himself and his crony cabinet members over the selection of Yaithibi Loukon for the proposed National Sports University in the state.

The Prime Minister of India, Narendra Modi has given the prestigious sports varsity to the people of Manipur after due acknowledging that extraordinary sporting talents of the people of state. It is a fact that Manipur is the powerhouse of sports in the county and the university would be a real boon to hone world class sports person in the soil of the state.

However, whatthe people can expect from an irresponsible government-failure in all fronts and social anarchy, pointed out Asnikumar while maintaining that since the last 14 years of its powerin the state the Congress government is trying to ruin Manipur by bring the state in to a situation where the people could not think and stand by their own.

As the government failed to comply with the rules of land acquisition, selection of Yaithibi Loukon for the National Sports University has turned into dispute inviting various forms of violent protests from the affected people and civil society organisations, hinted out the Vice-President of BJP, Manipur Pradesh.

University could not be established at agricultural and disputed areas; there are various wastelands and foothills in the state where no one would object. However, the malicious intention over choosing Yaithibi Loukon for the sport's university led to all these troubles, he said while adding that the present stalemate over the issue is due to lack of earnest interest and sincerity from the part of the state government.

He also appealed the State Government to stop befooling the public over the issue and delaying the establishment of the proposed university of sports in Manipur.
