

Bangladesh Police says Manipuri boy Ateef was killed after house party; No case filed yet

By: Siam Sarower Jamil Dhaka, July 18: Bangladesh Police say the killing of Ateef Sheikh, an Indian Manipuri student in Chittagong took place after a house party of boozing with friends at his flat.

Five more students joined deceased Ateef Sheikh, 26, his injured roommate 'Wilson', 26, and their flat-mate Niraj Guru, at the party on Friday, according to police.

All eight are students of University of Science and Technology Chittagong (USTC).

Mohammad Kamal, OC of local police station said to the Imphal Times. One of the party attendees was Ateef's girlfriend, two others were Bangladeshis. Indian students are mostly from Manipur.

Niraj's wife, who is also studying at the same university, was at the flat during the party but she did not attend it, the police official said.

"The students hold parties regularly at the flat. It was a similar party on Friday. Five from outside the flat joined Ateef, Wilson and Niraj at the party. Niraj's wife did not attend," OC Alamgir said.

"All at the party were drinking alcohol. We've interrogated some of them," he added.

Sub-Inspector Jashim Uddin said the others who came from outside left the flat around 11:30pm.

After taking Ateef and Wilson to Chittagong Medical College Hospital in the wee hours of Saturday, Niraj said he saw Ateef in a bloodied state while Wilson was hanging from the ceiling fan when he entered the room, using a duplicate key, after hearing some noise.

Ateef was declared dead on arrival, and Wilson was undergoing treatment, but his condition was stated to be 'critical', the OC said.

He also said it would not be possible to get a clear picture of the murder without questioning Wilson after he gets well.

Ateef's parents arrive in Bangladesh Sunday, the OC said.

Police handed the body over to the USTC authorities after post-mortem examination, he said.

No one filed any case over the incident until 5 PM, Monday.

Budget session shortened ; will have only 13 days sitting instead of 19 days; MPCC spokesperson terms the shortening as unreasonable

IT News Imphal, July 18: 2nd Budget session of the 11th Manipur Legislative Assembly, which is scheduled to hold from July 20 and had announced 18 days sitting have been shortened by 3 days, which means the budget session will have only 13 sitting days.

On July 10, a meeting of the Business Advisory Committee (BAC) Manipur Legislative Assembly had convened a meeting and as decided, the Assembly Secretariat had issued a notification for the 2nd budget session of the 11th Manipur Legislative Assembly.

However, another meeting of the BAC was conducted today afternoon and resolved to shorten the Budget session . The session will have its sitting till August 16. Source from the state government functionary said that the decision to shorten the budget session is due to the present crisis of natural calamities due to incessant rain.

On the other hand Manipur Pradesh Congress Committee (MPCC) spokesperson, Khumukcham Joykishan while speaking to Imphal Times said that the decision of the N. Biren Singh led government to shorten the Budget session after notification had already been issued has surprised him. Taking to Imphal Times the Congress spokesperson said that as the budget has only 13 days sitting most of the time will be consumed while passing matters related to over 50 government departments.

He said, important issues like that of the Inner Line Permit System, Indo-Naga Framework agreement which is a threat to the state of Manipur and the present flood crisis will not have time to discuss in the session.

Joykishan further said that some of the question that he had submitted had been cancelled due to limitation of time.
