

5 Dead In Iran Parliament, Tomb Shootings. Woman Suicide Bomber Involved

Source NDTV
Iran, June 7: Gunmen and suicide bombers carried out coordinated attacks on Iran's parliament and the tomb of Ayatollah Khomeini today, killing at least five people, reported state media. ISIS claimed responsibility for the attacks in Tehran, Amaq agency reported. Dozens of people were also wounded in the attacks, with continuing gunfire several hours after they began. A security guard and one other person were killed when four gunmen burst into Tehran's parliament complex with rifles and a pistol, according to the ISNA news agency. One of the attackers blew himself up on the fourth floor of the parliament office building. A gardener was reported dead and several more injured when armed assailants entered the grounds of Khomeini's mausoleum. A female suicide bomber blew herself up outside the shrine while another woman was arrested carrying six grenades, according to the Mizanonline news agency. A little while later, a second suicide bomber detonated explosives outside the mausoleum. Parliament was in session when the attacks unfolded, with live footage showing members continuing with business even as gun battles were reported in surrounding office buildings. Speaker Ali Larjani dismissed the attacks, saying they were a "trivial matter" and that security forces were dealing with them. An official at Khomeini's mausoleum in south Tehran said "three or four" people had entered via the western entrance and opened fire. The shrine lies around 20 km from parliament and houses the body of Khomeini, who led the Islamic revolution in 1979. The city was on lockdown, with streets blocked and parts of the metro closed. Journalists were kept away from the shrine y police. Interior Minister Abdolrahman Fazli told ISNA he had convened a special meeting of the country's security council. Iran has been singled out as a target by jihadist groups, including ISIS, but has largely escaped attacks within its urban centres. Iran, the predominant Shiite power, has been helping both Iraq and President Bashar al-Assad's regime in Syria to battle the Sunni extremist group. ISIS is under increasing pressure in both countries, having lost significant territory in the face of offensives now targeting its last two major urban bastions, Raqqa in Syria and Mosul in Iraq. ISIS published a rare video in Persian in March, warning that it "will conquer Iran and restore it to the Sunni Muslim nation as it was before."

I wonder if any of our MLAs, Ministers know about Azurama village- Chief

Laishram Ranbir Imphal, June 7: Even after 70 years of Independence, people of Azurama, a remote village in Tamenglong district, Manipur, had never seen competent government authorities or the elected representatives visiting the village. Namsulin Kamei, Chairman of Azurama Village, while talking to Imphal Times wanders if any of the Ministers or MLAs of the Manipur Legislative Assembly knows that there is village called Azurama in Tamenglong district. Change of government makes no difference, as conditions remain the same, the village chief added. Azurama village is about 110 Km from Imphal, and is about 11 Km from Tousem sub divisional headquarter. The district head quarter is just 27 Km from the village. Most of the villagers speak Meiteilon (manipuri) and Zelaingrong Language and as for religion, they follow Christianity. "During campaign for the 11th State Assembly Election, NPP candidate Awangbou Newmai who is now an MLA once visited Azurama village to woo his voters and since then he haven't shown up despite knowing the conditions of the village mainly in transportation, electric supply, etc", said the chairman of the village. The village is home to 1030 people of 197 houses with an average of 5 persons each in every family. Even though the village is not far from the Tamenglong district head quarter, it took almost one day to reach the village due to the dilapidated road condition. Talking to Imphal Times a villager said that, government had installed an electric transformer in 2006 but the village get electricity only two times in December 2016 and January 2017. Health care facility to the village is a far away dream. After the country celebrates 70 years of Independence there has not been a single health care center in the village. Thanks to the nearby army post at least the villagers get first aid treatment in case of emergency. A team of Royal Riders Manipur (RRM), recently conducted a free medical camp in the village. Villagers said this is the second medical camp witness by the villagers in 70 years, the first being conducted by state health department years back. Apart from all the trouble, Paddy rice, maize, potato, cabbage, cereals are the main economic crops of the village where rice is the staple food. Poultry and fishery are common as well as orange cultivation.
