"RIMS is the most corrupted hospital I ever heard" – a Post Graduate students writes to PM

IT News
Imphal, Nov. 2: A post graduate student at Regional Institute of Medical Scienc, Imphal has written to the Prime Minister stating that the institute is the most corrupt hospital he had ever heard. The Post Graduate Student, who had been in the institute for around 4 months, and who does not want to reveal his name, said that sometime he along with other medical practitioners treated patients without proper investigation as the Institute does not have any facilities for investigation and because the patient party can't afford to do test outside the institute. The student wrote the letter to the Prime Minister of India for his kind attention during middle week of December, 2017. As per his write up MRI machine installed did not work since he came to the Institute, CT scan had been shut down for nearly a month, there is no ICU which is just ward named SICU, with no ventilators, no monitor, but a bed and a cupboard, Neonatal ICU has been put just for name sake by putting fake sign in some forsaken rooms, for the whole hospital only one USG machine is working, there is no USG machine in the labour room which is the most important thing during delivery, above these patients have to buy all the medication including Iron and folic acid with their money, there are no defibrillators in casualty, toilet are the worst. The student further wrote that no authority in the Institution wanted to improve the hospital as each of them runs private hospital of their own. And money sanction for the improvement of the institution were consumed by the authority for their own good.

MPPDU draws CM attention over failure of PDS

IT News
Imphal, Nov 2: Manipur Proletariat Peoples' Democratic Union (MPPDU) has drew the attention of the Chief Minister of Manipur over the issue of non availability of items under Public Distribution System (PDS) to the beneficiaries. In a statement by Asem Suranjay, Joint Secretary, MPPDU, the organisation said that even as the new government has been seriously working out to root out corruption and other irregularities, many are still left out. Peoples share under the PDS has not been properly distributed. The MPPDU warned the government of dire consequences if the trend continues. The organisation also said that there is a possibility that people may face famine due to the frequent flood occurred. Many cultivation land and paddy field have been submerged under the flood water. Even as the farmers are working whole heartedly the flood occurred four time has destroyed their crops. When people are facing the after effect of flood there are some people who had been hijacking the PDS items like rice as the said have not been properly made available to the people. The MPPDU urged the Chief Minister to take the matter seriously before things goes out of hand.

Land donors descendants threaten to retain Chandel District Hospital land

IT News
Imphal, Nov 2: Descendents of the land donors of the Chandel District Hospital had threatened to retain the land over state government failures to construct approach road to the residential and cultivation area of the land donor of the Hospital. A statement of the descendents of the land donors said that they will fence right from the main gate of the district hospital to retain the land from the midnight of November 3. It blames the state Medical Department for the failure to construct the approach road saying the any consequences arises thereof shall be borne by the Medical department. State government is preparing to inaugurate the newly constructed 50 bedded district hospital by first week of this month. With the anger of the descendents of the land donors, it is likely that the Medical Directorate may face inconveniences to the hectic work for construction of the hospital.

According to the descendents, their forefather (Late) L. Thumthung of Chandel Christian Village had donated an area of Land measuring 3.07 Acres out of his patta land under Patta No. 254/78, Dag No. 3133 to the Medical Directorate for construction of the hospital in 1973. After donating the said area of land measuring 3.07 Acres of land to Medical department (Late) L. Thumthung still owned his land measuring 4.28 Acres in record 5.05 Acres in physical possession as per physical measurement conducted by the revenue SDO, Chandel Staff. And the Road leading to (L) L. Thumthung's Paddy field had been jointly used by the descendents of Late L. Thumthung and the Chandel District Hospital till February, 2011. "With the construction of 100 bedded District Hospital, the activities of Family oriented ongoing programs of Old Age Home, construction of residential buildings and cultivation for annual income on the said 5.05 Acres of (L) L. Thumthung's land had been totally aborted by causing irreparable loss to the descendents of (L) L. Thumthung", the statement said. Following this the Medical Directorate has opined construction of alternative approach road to (L) L. Thumthung land with the approval of the Land Donor's family. However, construction of such alternative approach road to the land Donor's Land has not been executed till date in spite of continuous verbal and written submission, the statement added.

AIR
New Delhi, Nov 2: The Supreme Court today agreed to hear tomorrow a petition challenging the constitutional validity of the Aadhaar Act. The matter was mentioned before a bench headed by Justice J Chelameswar. The counsel representing the petitioner sought an urgent hearing, saying similar pleas were already listed for hearing before the apex court tomorrow. The petitioner has moved the top court claiming that the Aadhaar Act infringes upon the Right to Privacy and the biometric mechanism was not working properly. On 30th of last month, a bench headed by Chief Justice Dipak Misra had said that a Constitution bench would be constituted and Aadhaar-related matters would come up for hearing before it in the last week of November. Several petitions challenging the Centre's move to make Aadhaar card mandatory for availing various services and benefits of government welfare schemes have been filed in the apex court.

NPF youth wing dharna enters Day-9

Courtesy: Eastern Mirror Nagaland

Kohima, Nov. 02 : MLA Yitachu has said that the NPF party will go to any extent to restore the rights of the people of the State and further towards a logical conclusion. Speaking at the NPF dharna at Nagaland civil secretariat on November 1, the MLA slammed the Governor PB Acharya and the NLA Speaker Ichiwawang for acting unethically. "The way the Governor of Nagaland and the NLA Speaker is behaving, it clearly shows that the Constitution of India does not apply to the state of Nagaland," Yitachu said adding "the way the judiciary is acting, it also clearly shows that the Indian legal system does not apply to the state of Nagaland." "We will move a resolution for an alternative constitution of Nagaland, as the present constitution does not apply to the State," he ridiculed, while he stated that "the present "unconstitutional government" will complete its full term as the Governor and NLA Speaker are with them." "With the NPF dharna entering the eighth day, Yitachu reasoned out why the Speaker is still remaining silent on the demands pressed by the NPF (Dr. Shürho's) party. He reiterated that the present government headed by TR is "unconstitutional," while he went on to mention that they (TR's party) cannot continue to fool the Nagas. Stating that the dharna staged by the NPF youth wing is a burning issue, Yitachu wondered as to why it (dharna) couldn't grab the attention of the CM.

"This is a burning issue, but the CM's priority is on having breakfast with 11 Naga bloggers," he said adding that "the CM is yet to have a press briefing on the demands pressed by the NPF." To the Governor, the MLA considered him as a strong RSS member who is here in North East and particularly Nagaland to propagate Hinduism. "Governor's attachment with the North east region has been for many years, but he (Acharya) has failed in his mission as he could not convert a single Naga to Hinduism," Yitachu said. On one of the recent incidents where a legislator from TR's group man-handled a department officer of Health and Family Welfare, Yitachu said this happened out of frustration.

"CM should be responsible for any action committed by his council of ministers. It should be a collective responsibility of the government that such an act was committed against a bureaucrat. What government is this?" the MLA questioned. On newspaper reports where Rio-led NPF has closed its door for reconciliation, Yitachu asserted that "the NPF "Shürho's group is neither a breakaway group nor a split group" further mentioning that "the NPF office still stands tall below Hotel Japfü Ashok." "We don't understand what they mean by reconciliation. To talk about reconciliation, they don't have a place anymore," he added saying "We are not fighting for ourselves, but we are fighting for the entire Naga people."

NPF minority wing president, Bishnu Bhattacharjee, stated that the Shürhoziel-led NPF is the original party, and therefore said that any other party should not disturb the smooth functioning of the party. Bhattacharjee also criticised the present government as "unconstitutional" and a "sleeping government" which is a making a mockery of the entire Nagas. President of NPF Zunheboto division, Akavi also addressed the gathering. The programme was chaired by Yanhola, general secretary, Central Women Wing, NPF, while Mhasimeiyie, president of NPF Youth Wing, Kohima division, delivered the welcome address. The vote of thanks was tendered by S Haino, secretary, Central Youth Wing, NPF.
