

Combing operation conducted

IT News
Imphal, Nov 5: As part of the security measures in connection with the upcoming Manipur Sangai Festival, 2017, cordon and search operation conducted at KR Lane and Golapati under Porompat Police Station in Imphal East today morning. A combine team of CDO/IE led by B Lunthang Vaipai OC, CDO/IE under the supervision of Kabib K, Sp/IE, cordon and search operation was conducted from 6:30 am.

Altogether 155 persons were verified and 5 youths who were unable to provide identification proof were pick up and later handed over to Porompat Police Station for further verification.

Protest staged against firing of gunshots

IT News
Imphal, Nov 5: Locals of Thoubal Turel Ahanbi Atoukhong Zilla Parishad constituency today stage a sit-in against the bullet attack at the residence of newly elected Adakshya Hasina Begum of Thoubal Zilla Parishad last night by some unknown miscreants. The sit-in was organised by Rural Area's United Club organisation, Lilong in Thoubal district.

Placard were put up in the sit-in demanding to clarify the reason behind firing rounds of bullet at the residence of the adakshya. Mention may be that, some unknown miscreants had fired around 4/5 rounds of bullet at the residence of newly elected Adakshya Hasina Begum of Thoubal Zilla Parishad at Lilong yesterday midnight. No persons were reported injured in the incident.

LSSP celebrates 4th Ningol Chakouba

IT News
Imphal, Nov 5: Lainingthou Sanamahee Sana-pung (LSSP), Imphal-East today celebrated Hiyangei Ningol Chakkouba for the fourth time today at Wangkhei Multipurpose Community Hall. Hiyangei is the month where married women were invited to lunch to celebrate Ningol Chakkouba. Over 50 Ningols from various part of the state were invited in the event. Titular king Leishemba Sanajaoba, presented gifts to the women and blessed them for a prosperous live.

2 students injured in clash among students groups

IT News
Imphal, Nov 5: Two students were hospitalised after a volunteers of two students' group clashed here in Imphal today. Reason for the clashed is not known as students of both the group did not spelled out.

According to report received by this newspaper the clashed might have happened over organisational politics in the recently concluded college election of Imphal College.

Source said that yesterday evening around 30 students came to the office of a student group at Takhel leikai Sega Road and picked up 5 volunteers of the students' group and beaten them up. Following the report about the abduction of the five student, another group of student came for the rescue. As the whereabouts of the abducted students were not known the student pour out their anger to a office of another students' body. Today morning again the two group continue the clashed resulting hospitalisation of two of the students. Condition of the two students is critical and reported to be at ICU of Raj Medcity. The two injured students has been identified as Haoyabam Chingkhainaba (20 years) of Sega Road and Oinam James (25 years) of Oinam Mamang Leikai.

12 hours bandh called by Maoist severely affects normalcy

IT News
Imphal, Nov 5: 12 hours bandh called by the Maoist Communist Party, Manipur, has severely affected normal life in the state. During the 12 hours bandh all interstate commercial vehicles stay off the road, shops and business establishments were shuts and entertainment houses were closed. The bandh began from 5 am today and concluded at 5 pm.

In Imphal West and Imphal West there were some private vehicles seen plying on the road however the number is very less comparing to other Sunday and there were only few commercial vehicles seen. The bandh also affected normal life at Bishnupur, Thoubal and Kakching district. Except some few almost all market area bore deserted looks. The bandh is called against the alleged hijacked of rice issue under the PDS. The rebel outfit has been demanding resignation of the CAF&PD Minister as well as punishment of those involved in the looting of the rice for the poor. In yesterday press statement the outfit had said that the bandh is also against some Underground group responsible in the looting of the rice which has to be issued to the poor through PDS.

'Eikhoigi Panthung' celebrates 19th Foundation Day

IT News
Imphal, Nov 5: Monthly journal 'Eikhoigi Panthung' today celebrates 19th Foundation Day at Manipur Press Club today. President of All Manipur Working Journalists' Union (AMWJU), Wangkhemcha Shyamjai, Editor of "Eikhoigi Panthung", Manglem Pechimayum and

President of United Committee Manipur (UPF) S Ratankumar graced the occasion as Chief guest, President and Guest of Honour respectively. 'Eikhoigi Panthung' is published by UPF. Speaking on the occasion, AMWJU President W. Shyamjai appreciated the effort of the team Eikhoigi Panthung in making the monthly journal a success. In his key note address Manager of the monthly journal Sh. Ajit highlighted the moto the monthly journal, he also stressed on the present day journalism and called upon fellow staffs to dedicate more on the field for making the journal more popular.

Govt strikes off over 2 lakh companies for remaining inactive

Agency
New Delhi, Nov 5: Government has struck off around 2(Point)24 lakh companies till date for remaining inactive for a period of two years and more and restrictions have been imposed on the operation of their bank accounts. In a statement, Corporate Affairs Ministry said preliminary inquiries has revealed that 35 thousand companies deposited and withdrew over 17 thousand crore rupees from 58 thousand accounts post demonetization. In one case, a company with a negative opening balance on 8th of November 2016, deposited and withdrew nearly 2500 crore rupees post-demonetization. Apart from restrictions on bank accounts, action has also been taken to restrict sale and transfer of assets of these companies until they are restored. The state governments have been advised to take necessary action in this regard by disallowing registration of such transactions. Separately, action has also been taken to disqualify directors on the board of companies that has failed to file financial statements and annual returns for a continuous period of three financial years. Around 3.09 lakh directors have been affected by this action. The Ministry said, in order to address the criminality angle, the SFIO has been authorized to arrest any person believed to be guilty of any fraud punishable under Prevention of Money Laundering Act. A separate initiative is also underway to develop a state-of-the-art software to put in place an early warning system which will be housed in SFIO.

Women plays a pivotal role in all spheres of life: Nemcha

DIPR
New Delhi, Nov. 5: Women plays a pivotal role in all spheres of life, be it at home, participation at religious activities or in professional life, stated Social Welfare and Cooperation Minister Smt Nemcha Kipgen while addressing the gatherings as Chief Guest at the evening session of the 6th North East India Choral Competition held at Thyagaraj Stadium, INA Colony, New Delhi which was held on the 4th of this month. "The role of women in the establishment of a strong and stable society is very vital and the contribution of women is often that of the role played by the corner-stone in the foundation of the house," she expressed. Minister lauded all the participants especially women participants who participated in this competition as she felt without women, the Church and the home will be half empty. The women singers have stood on equal footing on this competition which makes us extremely proud of them, Nemcha asserted. Highlighting the theme of the competition - "Togetherness," Social Welfare Minister Nemcha Kipgen urged all the people to come together as one despite the fact that different languages are spoken or hail from different-tribes, communities and from different states. She also expressed optimism that such competition will not just brings together huge number of talented participants and delegates from various churches to showcase their talents but will truly exhibit oneness among diverse ethnic groups and will enrich the participants as well as the audience spiritually. The 6th North East India Choral Competition was organized by Tangkhul Christian Charitable Trust (TCCT), Delhi. Altogether 9 (nine) choir groups from different parts of North-eastern states competed for the coveted title. Minister Nemcha gave away the prize to the winner of the 6th North East Choral Competition to Independent Church of India with a cash award of 3 Lac rupees, followed by the 1st Runner-up spot won by the Poumai Baptist Church, Delhi and 2nd Runner-up spot was won by the Tangkhul Church, Delhi.

Yoga not only improves physical health but also keep our mind peace - Dr. K Basanta

IT News
Imphal, Nov 5: "Yoga not only keep us healthy but also keep our mind peace", this was stated by Dr. K. Basanta, Secretary of Nature Cure & Yoga Hospital Kongba during the one day Yoga demonstration held at Tenthia Multiplex of Tenthia Khongbal today. He further said that human body has been associated with various microbes all the time. Inorder to suppress these microbes by the strength of the body we need to keep our body healthy and this can be done through practice of Yoga. Eikhoi khudingmak Yoga Asanasing Chang naina Exercise touba mauthou tai. The Yoga demonstration was instructed by Laishram BijayaLaksmi and Nabachandra Athokpam. Around 50 persons attended the demonstration camp. President of All Tenthia Yoga Association Moirangthem Iboiphak, Editor of IPAK Journal Rakesh Naorem and Educationist Moirangthem Suranjay were among those present in the programme.

Guru Nanak Jayanti celebrated

IT News
Imphal, Nov 5: Guru Nanak Gurpurab, also known as Guru Nanak Jayanti celebrates the birth of first SIKH Guru, Guru Nanak. This is one of the most sacred festivals of the SIKH religion. Khuga Bn celebrated the festival with lots of fervour and colour on November 4. The celebrations commenced two days prior to the Guru Nanak Jayanti with Akhand path, a forty eight hour non stop reading of the guru granth sahib. The days festivities began with changing the chola of Nishan sahib, which was followed by Ardas and much awaited 'Guru ka Langer', special community lunch organised by volunteers. The idea behind free lunch is that everyone, irrespective of caste, class and creed should be offered food in the spirit of sewa and bhakti. The festivities were attended by one and all of Singhnat sub division displaying bonhomie and synergy between Army and locals. Later the school going children also graced the occasion which was icing on the cake.

CVC seeks data on fraud from PSU banks since 2001

Source AIR
New Delhi, Nov 5: The Central Vigilance Commission (CVC) has sought details from public sector banks about all fraud reported by them to the CBI since 2001. The exercise is part of a first-of-its-kind initiative being undertaken by the anti-corruption watchdog aimed at bringing in systematic improvements in the banking system to prevent fraud. Vigilance Commissioner TM Bhasin told news agency PTI that the Commission has asked banks to provide information of all the cases of fraud involving 3 crore rupees and more. He said, Chief Vigilance officers of the banks have been asked to submit the data by the 15th of this month. The Vigilance Commissioner said, the information will be analysed to find out the common modus operandi used in various types of fraud. He said, after analysing the information, they will take up issue with the RBI as to how systematic improvements are required to be made.