

Fast-unto-death by SSUM and MPPDU leaders enters 2nd day; police picked them

IT News

Imphal, Nov 17: Fast-unto-death protest by two leaders of Socialist Students' Union Manipur (SSUM) and Manipur Proletariate Peoples' Union (MPPDU) enters 2nd day today.

Naorem Tonaranjan, Convenor of SSUM and Nameirakpam Meghachandra, President of MPPDU began the fast unto death protest since 3 pm yesterday at their office premises at Tiddion Road Keishampat Laishom leirak. They are demanding the government for framing of a legislation to safeguard the indigenous people of the state; constitutional protection for the integrity of the state and also to punish all those responsible in the hijacking of public properties.

Tonaranjan, while speaking to this reporter said that they will continue the fast unto death until the demands are fulfilled. When asked on who actually are those hijacking the public properties, Tonaranjan said that they are demanding to make available the share of rice and other items which are to be distributed under the Public Distribution System. "The rich people can afford, but the rice and other items under PDS are very important for poor students like us", Tonaranjan said and added that our share are being hijacked by some government authority and these people should be punished at any cost.

Noarem Tonaranjan is a 1st year BA student of Nambol Sanoi College. He is the son of Naorem Ranjit and Naorem Ongbi Ranjita of Nambol Thiyam. Nameirakpam Meghachandra, President of MPPDU while speaking to this reporter said that the government of Manipur had assured the people to frame a legislation which will be accepted by all communities for protection of the indigenous people of the state, however, nothing is done regarding the matter. On the other hand, he also expressed about the need for constitutional protection of the territorial boundary of the state.

Meghachandra said that the two had sought permission from the district administration to allow them proceed the democratic form of protest but as the permission was not granted they began the fast-unto-death protest at the office complex.

Showing solidarity to the two protestors, large number of Meira Paibis from Leimajam Leikai yesterday joined them. Today another group of meira paibi from Sapam Leirak and Sayang area came to show solidarity to the two activists. Later, both the fast-unto-death protestors went at Keishampat Leimajam Leikai Community Hall continue their protest. The meira paibis too showed solidarity by joining the protest. Meanwhile, a team of Police picked the two protestors at around 3 pm

ZUF gives warning gunshot to NSCN-IM for leaving Noney area

IT News

Imphal, Nov 17: Officially, the government of Manipur still denies existence of any undesignated camps of the NSCN-IM in the soil of Manipur, but rival group of the NSCN-IM today open fire near crowded Noney market area warning the NSCN-IM to vacate their camp from Noney area.

Report reaching here said that some cadres of Zeliangrong United Front (ZUF) fires 3 rounds of gunshots in the air near Noney market under Noney police station at around 10.25 am today. Source says the ZUF cadres fires the gunshots as a warning to the NSCN-IM if fails to vacate their undesignated camp from Noney area.

State security agencies seems to be clueless about the presence of NSCN-IM camp at Noney even as there are many complaints from the public about the kind of harassment given by the NSCN-IM cadres at Noney and adjoining area.

Interestingly, the source added that the ZUP cadres started attacking the NSCN-IM just to make sure that they dominate the Noney area so that no organisation stands as obstacles while extorting money from the area, which they called as tax.

With the strength of ZUP cadres rising in the area people of the area expressed apprehension about factional clash between the two if non retreat. Meanwhile, security force presence in the area is silent over the matter.

CM attends to about 500 complaints on Peoples' Day

Imphal, Nov. 17: Thousands of people turned up on the joint Hill Leaders' Day and Meeyangmi Nunit to highlight their grievances to the Chief Minister N. Biren Singh at CM's Secretariat today.

The Chief Minister attended to as many as 500 complaints and personally met nearly 1500 people from 8:00 am to 3:15 pm. On the occasion, the Directorate of Information and Public Relations (DIPR) screened various documentaries highlighting the achievements of the new government and Chief Minister's visit to various hill districts of the State.

Speaking to the media persons, Chief Minister said that the government is focusing on action oriented policies and programmes for the welfare of the people and State. He affirmed that the new government is right on track towards bringing development in the State. Seeking people's support and co-operation, Chief Minister said, "I am doing my level best to serve the people of the State."

Refuting the allegations made by the Opposition parties, he said that people are witnessing the recent progress and development in the State and that the new government is tirelessly working for its people. He stated that the new government didn't announce any false promises to the people, everything has been put before the public. He said that since its inception, the government is maintaining complete transparency to achieve good governance in the State. He asserted that the new government is trying its best to resolve the misdeeds/issues done by the previous government. As of now, there hasn't been a single protest/agitation against the present government by the people of the State, he added.

Stating the grievances of differently-abled persons, widows, and old-aged persons, Chief Minister said that the government is conducting assessment camps in various districts for the identification and issue of disability certificate and assessment of nature of disability for providing appropriate aids and appliances for persons with disability living in the State. Mentioning some of the developmental projects being taken up in the State, he said that the Tamenglong-Haflong road is upgrading to National Highway, construction of Water Supply Scheme estimated cost of Rs 40 crores at Tamenglong etc.

Chief Minister further stated that the health insurance scheme for BPL families which would provide financial assistance of Rs 2 lakh for medical treatment would be launched on 1st January, 2018. He mentioned that to ease the financial burden faced by widows, the application form for the Health Care Insurance Scheme for widows is being issued here today.

Mentioning about hosting the North-East Development Summit during Manipur Sangai Festival 2017, Chief Minister said that preparations are almost complete for the upcoming Sangai festival. Various National and International investors and companies are expected to participate in the North-East Development Summit to be held on 21st-22nd November, 2017, he added. He said that till now, Chief Ministers of Assam, Arunachal Pradesh and Nagaland have confirmed to attend the Festival. A media team from Myanmar would

CNPO not satisfy with the presence of state force in Chandel district

IT News

Imphal, Nov 17: While condemning the November 13 blast at Mahamani Village in the strongest term and while assuring to extend fullest cooperation to the police department, Chandel Naga Peoples Organization (CNPO) expressed strong resentment to the presence of unwanted state forces in Chandel District HQ or elsewhere.

A meeting of the Presidential Meeting convened by Chandel Naga Peoples Organization (CNPO) yesterday alleged the presence of the large number of state force in Chandel district considered as policies and programmes of state

Govt. to create problems in order to solve another one.

2 AR personnel were killed injuring some in a bomb blast on Novemvbr 13 at Mahamani village in Chandel district. "The blast is barbaric act" said a statement of the CNPO. However, the CNPO statement said that the presence of large number of state force in the district creates mental torture and harassment to the people of Chandel.

The meeting of the CNPO also appealed any group(s) to restrain from such inhuman acts in future that pollute clean atmosphere of Chandel District.

"As a valley base UG has claim responsibility of the said blast, we urge the state Govt. and state forces to divert their attention towards them and not to Chandel District. We will not accept/ tolerate any mechanisms of state Govt. or forces which will be detrimental to the people of Chandel", the statement added. It further appealed the govt. to withdraw all the surplus state force from the district in the interest of the common people.
