

Honesty and sincerity a must to bring change in the state: CM

DIPR Imphal, Oct. 11: Chief Minister N. Biren Singh stated that change should start within ourselves to bring positive change in the State and honesty, sincerity, transparency are the integral characteristics to bring change in society. This was stated by him at inauguration of the Police-Press Workshop held at 1st MR Banquet Hall, Imphal today. The workshop is being organised by Manipur Police Department in connection with the 125th anniversary Celebrations of Manipur Police. Speaking as Chief Guest of the function, Chief Minister said that the government is giving priority to maintain good and healthy relationship with the people of the State. He maintained that in order to build a cordial relationship with people, we should try to solve the small issues faced by the people of the State. People oriented schemes and projects are being introduced by the new Government and will try its level best to deliver better governance in the State, he added. He further stated that if the demands and aspirations of the people are met, the gap between the people and government would be lessened. Stating that media is the fourth pillar in a Democratic State, Shri N. Biren Singh said that the media invariably plays an important role to uphold the Rule of Law in the region. Professional ethics should be maintained by the journalists while reporting sensitive news so that police could control the crimes happening in the State, he continued. Mentioning that people have faith in Police nowadays, Chief Minister said that people living both in hills and valley are requesting for police patrolling along the State and National Highways. This is a sign of healthy relationship between the people and Police in the State. N. Biren Singh said that the sole responsibility of the Police is to maintain and control the law and order situation of the State. If police don't know the ground realities such as complexities of social and political nature at grassroots level, then police cannot prevent from deteriorating law and order situation, he added. He stated that the cyber crime unit of the Police Department has solved many cases and thus preventing various crimes and mob justice in the State.

"University & College Teachers set a program for movements in November"

IT News

Imphal, Oct 11: An important meeting of National Executive Committee (NEC) of All India Federation of University & College Teachers' Organisations (AIFUCTO) was held on 8th October 2017 in Hindi Bhawan, New Delhi. Teacher leaders of the Country form most of the States participated in the long deliberations throughout the day. Prof. KesabBattacharya, President, AIFUCTO presided over the meeting. Dr. Arun Kumar, General Secretary, AIFUCTO appraised the members of continuous agitational program under taken by AIFUCTO and also exposed bitterly the indifferent, undemocratic and anti teacher mind set of the Govt. In spite of the fact, that the University & College teachers were on continuous democratic agitation, it is unfortunate, the Govt of India is remaining totally callous on the genuine demands to make public the recommendations of Prof. Chouhan committee report and its uniform and simultaneous implementation throughout the country. The teachers of the country are in utter confusion and dark as to the approach of the Central Govt on the above vital issues. News has been circulated clandestinely that the Govt is seriously reviewing the recommendations of the Chouhan Committee report detrimental to the vital interest of teachers. The Hon'ble Minister HRD Shri P. Jawadekar since the last six month repeatedly telling to the teachers' organisations that "Very soon seventh UGC Pay revision will be implemented across the country." But the HRD Minister has no answer that what will be implemented and how much Central financial assistance will be provided to the States (?) NEC of AIFUCTO decided unanimously that:- 1. From 13th to 18th November 2017 will have non-cooperation in every College and University Unit with the administration and on 15th November, teachers of all the Colleges and Universities will hold a protest Dharma at their respective units and will have Chalk dawn/Pen dawn movement. During dharna teachers will discuss the crises in higher education along with their demands. 2. On 30th November 2017 the University & College teachers will have protest dharna/demonstration in all Universities Head Quarters throughout the country. 3. On 11th December, 2017 teachers of the Universities and Colleges will observe "Cease Work" and have dharna/demonstration in the State capital. If by then our demands will not be fulfilled, then in the National Statutory Conference of AIFUCTO to be held in Shirdi, Maharashtra from 18th to 20th December 2017 the options of General Strike and other alternative modes of protest will be discussed and decided. AIFUCTO's important demands are :- 1. Publication of Prof Chauhan Committee report, uniform and simultaneous implementation throughout the country with 100% Central assistance. 2. Removal of anomalies of 6th pay scales. 3. Pay scale & service condition to Adhoc/Part time /Self finance /Block grant teachers. 4. Old Pension Scheme for all teachers. 5. Scrapping of API and extension of dates of RC/OC up to 31st December 2017 etc. are included in the demands. Many teacher leaders from North East were also attended the meeting. Dr Khireswar Borah, President of Assam College Teachers' Association and its General Secretary Prof Tulshi Das represented Assam. Prof M. Lokendro Singh, President, All Manipur College Teachers' Association (AMCTA) who is also Zonal Secretary (NE) of AIFUCTO represented Manipur as well as North East Zone as he had already received reports on the stands, feedbacks and opinions from Meghalaya College Teachers' Association, Mizoram College Teachers' Association, All Nagaland Government Teachers' Association, Arunachal Pradesh College Teachers' Association & Gauhati University Teachers' Association.
