CorCom Wishes On Haipou Jadonang Memorial Day

Imphal, August 28,

The Coordinating Committee (CorCom) of seven militant outfits, KCP, KYKL, PREPAK (Pro), RPE, UNLF and UPPK, wishes the people of Manipur on the occasion of freedom fighter, Haipou Jadonang Memorial Day on August 29.

According to a statement of CorCom, after Manipur was merged under the colonial British rule in 1891, the indigenous people of hill and valley faced untold suffering from the colonial rule. During this time of suffering, Haipou Jadonang, who was born at Puihon (Kambiron) Kabui Khul on Imphal-Cachar road, stood for the downtrodden people. He took great role in inspiring the people to fight for their freedom from the colonial rule.

He was arrested for revolting against the British govt and kept at Tamenglong Jail for few days. But after his release from the jail, people's trust for him grows stronger and his fight for freedom movement also grows stronger.

Subsequent to the widespread uprising in the area, the British initiated plans to bring down Haipou Jadonang. He was again arrested from Cachar and from there he was taken to Imphal Jail. On August 29, 1931 he was hung in front of the public at Imphal Jail. Since then, the indigenous peoples of Manipur has been observing August 29 as the freedom fighter Haipou Jadonang Memorial Day.

CorCom further stated that different indigenous communities of Manipur has been living together undivided with love and brotherhood since time immemorial. Today let's refresh this brotherhood and unity and dig into our history to know our roots are the need of the hour.

“Leaving behind our differences let's bow down our heads to pay tribute to this freedom fighter,” it appeals.

“Vriksha Bandhan” celebrated by Aryans Students

Imphal, Aug 28,

On the occasion of Raksha Bandhan students of Aryans College of Engineering (ACE), Aryans Business School (ABS), Aryans Institute of Management & Technology (AIMT), Aryans Institute of Nursing (AIN), Aryans College of Law (ACL), Aryans College of Education (ACE), Aryans Degree College (ADC), Aryans College of Pharmacy (ACP) organized a Tree Plantation activity at it's Campus Near Chandigarh and appealed people to take a pledge to protect them and celebrate a Green Rakhi. A total of 250 saplings were planted in and around the Campus by the students including Bottle Brush, Neem, Bael, Nermi, Mango, Guava etc.

Prof. B.S Sidhu, Director,

Aryans Group encouraged students to plant more trees and take care of their plantations thereafter. He said that students have celebrated “Vriksha Bandhan” with great zeal showing their love towards the Nature.

Sidhu stressed that college students must be connected with sapling plantation and awareness programmes which are key factors to encourage citizens to protect environment by planting trees. Plants should be grown to keep the environment green, clean, safe and healthy Sidhu added.

Students showed great enthusiasm in planting them on the day of Raksha Bandhan and they knew their hard work would recharge ground water, prevent soil erosion, forest will become dense and yield more benefits.
