

AMUCO, UCM and other CSOs set to observe Great June Uprising and Unity Day

IT News
Imphal, June 17,

All Manipur United Club Organisation (AMUCO), United Committee Manipur (UCM) and other civil society bodies in the state is set to observe the Great June Uprising and Unity Day tomorrow. The major civil society bodies of the state has been observing the day to pay respect to the 18 plus Martyrs who had laid down their lives in a mass uprising against the extension of cease fire between the NSCN-IM and the Government of India to the territory of Manipur in 2001.

Main observance will be held at Kekrupat complex. Fitting tribute will be paid to the memorials of the martyrs constructed at Kekrupat like every year. Mention may be made that on June 14, 2001, a day after the Defence Minister of India George Fernandes assured the people that the cease fire will be confined to the state of Nagaland, then Indian Interlocutor Pdmama Bhaiya signed an agreement with the leadership of the NSCN-IM at Bangkok stating that the cease fire agreement between the NSCN-IM and GoI had been extended "without territorial limit".

The agreement sparked protest in the state. Even the state assembly was burnt by the people. People pour their anger to the political parties but there were no communal clash.

Congress breaks silence over development at MU;

Formed High level committee to look into the matter

IT News
Imphal, June 17,

Ongoing impasse at Manipur University which totally break down academic atmosphere in the University has been seriously noted by the opposition congress Party. A High level committee under the Chairmanship of former dy. CM Gaikhangam has been monitoring the development and the party after finding the prima facie evidences is all set to take the issue to the highest authority and to the Parliament.

"What has been going on in the Manipur University is very unfortunate and have been monitoring the development since the last few days after forming a high level committee chaired by senior member Gaikhangam". Debabratta, Spokesperson of the MPCC said to this reporter while talking over phone. He further said that there are prima facie evidences of the financial irregularities on the side of the Vice Chancellor and the Congress had almost met all stakeholders except the students regarding the misutilisations of fund by the Vice Chancellor, the Congress

Spokesperson said. He further added that procurement of a bullet proof vehicle from University exchequer as well as spent of money at large scale for his travel outside the state has been all noted and the committee is serious to the matter.

Beside Gaikhangam and Debabratta, Former MLA Dr.

Ng. Bijoy, who is also a former VC of the Manipur University, MLA Govindas Konthoujam, MLA K Ranjit and MPCC spokesperson Hareshwar Goswami are also member of the high level committee.

Meanwhile, source close to the Imphal Times said that the Vice Chancellor Adiya Prasad Pandey is now trying to get in touch with the agitating students as well as the members of the MUTA since yesterday. However, as of now none of the members from either the side of MUSU or the MUTA has showed solidarity to the VC.

Meanwhile, report said that some member of the MUTA had met the High Level Committee of the Congress Chaired by Gaikhangam. Details of the conversation could not be known as of now but it is expected that VC's irregularities and misappropriation of University exchequer has been discussed in depth. Source, also added that the head of departments of the Manipur University are also likely to tender resignation tomorrow if no amicable solution is brought to the ongoing impasse.

O. Joy writes to Javadekar and Dr. Heptulla for immediate intervention to the present impasse at MU

IT News
Imphal, June 17,

Veteran politician Okram Joy Singh, who had represented as MLA from Lanthabal Assembly constituency for seven times and now a BJP spokesperson had sought immediate intervention of the Union Human Resource Minister Prakash Javadekar and Manipur Governor Dr. Najma Heptulla to the ongoing impasse at the Manipur University which sparked out due to the inefficiency of the Vice Chancellor of the University Prof. Adiya Prasad Pandey.

Referring to local newspaper report, O Joy wrote, "without any contradiction or denial, is that Manipur University has incurred a sum of Rs. 8 crores being travel expenses of the present Vice-Chancellor. This is only the tip of the iceberg. Many other distressing facts are brought out in many local newspapers. They are not mentioned herein as it would suffice by mere perusal of the newspaper reports which are annexed in the letter".

The BJP spokesperson also expressed dissatisfaction towards the attitude of the VC, in showing respect to the former Chief Minister of Manipur Md. Allimuddin who had laid foundation for the present University of today. In the letter to the Union HRD Minister and Manipur Governor, who is also the Chief Rector, O Joy stated that October 19 has been observed every year as a mark of respect to the former Chief Minister Md. Allimuddin who had laid the foundation of the University till 2015. However, present VC Prof. Adiya Prasad Pandey had refused the permission for the said function for the successive years of 2016 and 2017 for reason best known to him. (Contd. on Page 4)
