Convener of the JAC Surjabala, who is also the President of the Proletarian Feminist Movement of Manipur while talking to media at Keishampat said that after the JAC staged a sit in protest at Pechu Lampak yesterday, memorandum demanding justice for Sanjita has been Submitted to the prime Minister of India, the Governor of Manipur and Chief Minister of Manipur, Union Sports Minister, Indian Olympic Association, Indian Weight Lifting Federation and the Manipur Weight lifting Association.

"If any of the authority fails to give positive response to the demand of the JAC than from July 3 the JAC will launch state wide mass agitation", Surjabala said.

She also caution serious consequences and held responsibility to the authority if justice has not been provided to her.

Brother of the CWG Gold medallist said that there seem to be a conspiracy to the doping test conducted to her sister. He said the letter which was sent confirming doping positive of her sister from the International Weightlifting Federation have two different Sample No.

Imphal Times also carried news report about the doping result sent by the IWF to Sanjita. The letter was also published in this newspaper.

Arvind Kejriwal Faces Criminal Conspiracy Charge in Chief Secretary Assault Case, Say Sources

Agency
New Delhi, June 28,

Delhi Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal and his deputy Manish Sisodia will be charged by the police with criminal conspiracy over the alleged assault on chief secretary Anshu Prakash in February. Sources say that the chargesheet will be filed soon in the case.

The criminal conspiracy offence carries a maximum punishment of three years. According to sources, Kejriwal and Sisodia were named in the FIR by the Chief Secretary.

The alleged assault on the chief secretary had triggered a bitter tussle between the Delhi government and its bureaucracy.

Chief Secretary Anshu Prakash has alleged that at a meeting at Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal's residence on February 19, AAP MLAs Prakash Jarwal and Amanatullah Khan physically assaulted him.

Chief Secretary Anshu Prakash has alleged that at a meeting at Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal's residence on February 19, AAP MLAs Prakash Jarwal and Amanatullah Khan physically assaulted him. Kejriwal was questioned and his home was searched twice by the police in connection with the incident. The Chief Minister's office has denied the allegations and said the incident never took place. "Delhi CM office strongly denies allegations by the Chief Secretary. There was no incident of assault or attempted assault by any AAP MLAs," a statement from Kejriwal's office said.

6th NNPDC incentive award Presented OPD service for Ayush hospital Keirao to start from July: MLA Rameshwar

IT News
Imphal, June 28,

The sixth NNPDC incentive award 2010 was presented to the meritorious students of Keirao Bitra who have passed out the matric and class 12 examinations with high marks. The award presentation ceremony organised by Nongpok Ningthou Panthoibi Development committee Keirao Bitra was held at the Nongpok Ningthou panthoibi community hall Keirao Bitra. Keirao MLA, Lourebam Rameshwar Meitei attended the function as chief guest while NNPDC Keirao bitra chairman T Joy Meitei, Bamonkampu ZP Member Golmei Kachungna, Keirao GP Pradhan K Chourajit, Ward member N Lata, ward member Sh Baleshor, Principal Johnstone higher secondary school M Jadumani Meitei, Retd Asst Teacher T Ibohah, IFCD surveyor H Lokendra attended the function as president and guest of honours respectively.

Altogether 20 first divisioners in class X and class XII examinations were felicitated during the function.

Speaking to the gathering, Keirao MLA Lourebam Rameshwar Meitei said that construction of 50 bedded integrated Ayush hospital and Homeopathy college at Keirao Bitra has started and completion target is set by February next year.

Government is planning to start OPD service of the Ayush hospital from July this year, he said.

Asserting that the people of the Keirao Kendra have been facing many inconveniences in terms of medical facilities, connectivity, drinking water, education due to the past misrules, he said that he is facing hardships to make up all the shortages and to resolve the public grievances within a year with the available sources of a local MLA.

Besides, the present government is constrained to take up new development initiatives as the state was left in bankruptcy by the previous congress government. State government is burdened with monthly interest payment worth around 71 crores.

The MLA, however, assured that he would make the maximum effort to fulfill the aspirations of the people in his constituency.

Assuring that three Community halls would be constructed at Keirao bitra, the MLA said that earthwork for construction of Community hall at Keirao Awang laikai had already been started and construction of the community hall would start as soon as rainy season is over. Repairing of Imphal-Yairipok road will be started from next year, he said.

Refuting charges, MLA Rameshwar said that he never neglected the flood victims of Kiyamei Muslim and other surrounding areas. He said he made his best effort to help the flood victims in his constituency.

To gain political mileage, Rameshwar alleged, some vested interest people deliberately breached the river bank at Kiyamei Muslim and let the people suffer. Those people even denied entry of local MLA who was coming to help the people. Later, the MLA was wrongly blamed through the media for not helping the flood victims, he added.

Agreement with some employees didn't help; Many offices paralyse as JAC strike enters 99 days

IT News
Imphal, June 28,

Agreement with some group of government employees failed to resume normalcy at many of the government offices as the JAC of AMGEO and AMTUC continue its strike demanding implementation of the 7th Pay commission which enters 99 days today.

The Secretariat Service Association and the Engineering Services Association had suspended the cease work strike following agreement with the government over the implementation of the 7 Pay commission but the JAC of AMGEO and AMTUC which comprises members from 105 department of the state government continue its cease work strike except on emergency services demanding the 7th Pay implementation.

As per report reaching here files related to payment of bills had been snatched by the volunteers of the JAC from the treasury office here in Imphal some days back. Many developmental work process are on halt even fund sanctioned by the center under various schemes have remain pending as the employees continues the cease work strike.

NSCN-IM pays tribute to Isak Chishi Swu

IT News
Imphal, June 28,

The NSCN-IM today pay tribute to Isak Chishi Swu who is the Yariuwo of the Government Of The People's Republic Of Nagalim on his 2nd death anniversary.

A statement released by the MIP of the outfit said that (Late) Ino Isak Chishi Swu, the Yariuwo of the GPRN passed away in New Delhi after a prolonged illness on this day, the 28th June, 2016, after fighting for the rights of the Nagas for more than 58 (fifty eight) years. "He was a man who feared the Lord and who stood his ground to the last. He was truly a champion of peace, infusing in us a strong sense of oneness through eternal Love of our Lord Jesus Christ. Throughout his life, he propagated unity in Naga solidarity with purpose", the statement said.

It further added the role of the departed revolutionary terming it as an irreplaceable role in Nagas' Journey for Common Hope and true reconciliation through commitment and sacrifice for the love of Naga freedom from oppression and domination. It was under his leadership that the Nagas' cause is recognized by the world through his tireless efforts in leading delegations of the NSCN to the US, Europe and many Asian countries and when he delivered speeches at the conferences of the United Nations Working Group on Rights of Indigenous Peoples in Geneva in 1993 and 1994.

The statement said that 46 (forty six) years after his birth, an infamous document commonly known as the Shillong Accord which enshrined the acceptance of the Indian Constitution was signed by the "representatives of the 'so-called' Naga underground organizations" on one hand and the then Assam Governor LP Singh on the other as the Indian representative in 1975. The 11th November, 1975, by sheer coincidence, turned out to be the birth date of the Yariuwo. He was born in 1929, the year the then Naga Club (NC) submitted a monumental representation to the Simon Reform Commission which headed the Britain's Instrument of Succession. He enrolled for the sacred National Service on the 5th December, 1958.

All these coincidences add up to the significance of a Naga National Hero who breathed his last on the 28th June, 2016, two years ago today, the statement said and added that he was born to traverse 58 (fifty eight) years of jeremid sojourn to liberate a people who stubbornly refuse to the authority of India over Nagalim. These 58 years contains all the extremities a National Hero could ever imagine and bore the burdens and responsibilities willingly in order to give freedom to his people: the great and proud Naga people, who will never forfeit liberty, human dignity and freedom from suppression; come what may. He will forever live a perfect example of sacrifice for generations to come and to be emulated.

"This very day, the 28th June, 2016, our Naga national Hero left us, yet, his spirit still dwells amidst us; and our spirit of sacrifice soar high as we fondly remember and commemorate his 2nd Death Anniversary. As a sign of Nagas' highest respect, the Naga National Flag flies at half mast today while Government offices remain closed.
