

Superintendent of state police jump in the gorge to rescue accident victims

IT News
Imphal, June 7,

This is neither Hollywood nor Bollywood movie story. This is a real story of how a police officer jump himself at the gorge to save accident victims at Imphal -Moreh road in Tengnoupal district. District police Superintendent Dr. Ibomcha was returning from Moreh on his routine duty, when he finally found Maruti van with some people inside met an accident after it falls in a gorge at leingantabi area which is about 150 ft depth. "Today at around 8.30 am when I was returning from Moreh, one Silver colour Van coming from Imphal bearing Regd. No. MN01 K 6211 was found fallen into a deep gorge, around 150 ft down at Leingantabi", SP Dr. Ibomcha wrote through a WhatsApp message. Laishram Kenedy Meitei (32) s/o L. Ibomcha of Yairipok Khoirom, a 2nd driver and Laishram Sanathoi Meitei (18) s/o L. Nongyai of Yairipok Khoirom Mathak Leikai, the driver of the van were in the van. Luckily there were no passengers in the van. Laishram Kenedy, the second driver sustained serious injury but the driver luckily escapes major injury. SP Dr. Ibomcha without waiting for his escort team after giving command wait for no time and just went down by himself. He was followed by his team. It was more like a Hindi movie which people will never believe that the SP carry the injured victim at his back from the gorge till the road side. People who show the picture of the SP Dr. Ibomcha carrying the injured person at his back keep on appreciating the police officer.

8 days of impasse at MU: VC spells no words; students opens departments, continue to shut A and E block

IT News
Imphal, June 7,

Even as the ongoing impasse at Manipur University has entered 8 days today, the Vice Chancellor of the University Prof. AP Pandey still remain quite without spelling out a single appeal to the students or without giving any clarification to the allegations levelled against him. Meanwhile, Manipur University Students Union (MUSU) still continues their agitation by shutting down the Administrative Block and the Examination block, however have decided to open the departments. Exmination scheduled today has been postponed. A highly placed source said that the state Education Minister Th. Radheshyam had talk with the VC regarding the present crisis in the University. It is also learnt the some feeler are being sent to the leaders of the MUSU to talk over the matter. MUSU source however did not disclose anything about the Education Minister sending feeler but said that even in case they sent , the MUSU will not make any U-turn to the demand for removal of the Vice Chancellor Prof. AP Pandey. The source further added that with the indefinite shutting of the A-Block various students who had completed their higher studies course are facing difficulties in getting their documents which were supposed to be issued by the University authority.

CM intervention sought to the present impasse at MU

IT News
Imphal, June 7,

Showing serious concern to the ongoing impasse at Manipur University which severely affected the academic atmosphere of the University, the All Manipur Students Guardians' Organisation (AMSGO), Manipur today call on the attention of the Chief Minister of Manipur for immediate intervention. In a press statement issued by the Sumati Sougrakram

Secretary, AMSGO, the organisation urged authority to appoint a regular Vice Chancellor of the University, who will work for upliftment of the University, in place of the present VC who hardly stayed at the station for even 10 days. Even as the Manipur University has been upgraded to the status of a Central University, it is disappointing to see the present status, the statement added. It said that the MUSU has been demanding for filling of vacant posts since the last couple of months and the VC's irresponsible attitude had prompted the students to take up the extreme measure disturbing the academic atmosphere of the University. "It is 8 days now and the agitation is still on and if the situation continues fate of the students will be at risk, we urge our Chief Minister to intervene the matter the earliest possible time", Sumati said in the statement.

Chief Minister N. Biren Singh interacted with the Village Authority leaders and villagers of 21 different villages of Khengjoi Sub-Division of Chandel district at Chief Minister's Secretariat today. The interaction session was organised on special request from 19 Assam Rifles, which is currently deployed at the interior area.

Assam Rifles officers briefed the Chief Minister about the benefits which can be possibly reaped from the introduction of widespread avocado plantation at the area. They also apprised him about the problems faced by villagers due to poor connectivity, absence of water supply, electricity and other basic amenities. Village Authority leaders also highlighted the inconveniences which they have been facing since the past many years. After patiently listening to them, the Chief Minister immediately talked to the higher-ups of Manipur State Power Distribution Company Ltd. (MSPDCL) over the phone and asked them to take up necessary steps for providing power supply to Tuitong and adjoining areas at the earliest. He also directed Chandel DC

Shri Krishna Kumar to prepare a project report for the construction of a road having proper drains from Sehlon to New Santal. Stating that the Centre had agreed to provide more funds to the State under Border Area Development Programme (BADDP), the Chief Minister said that he would forward the said project to the Union Home Ministry for inclusion into BADDP. N. Biren also asked the Assam Rifles officers to encourage villagers to plant lemongrass, avocado and banana etc. instead of poppy. He also said that the Government is ready to install banana fibre extracting machines if widespread banana plantation is possible at the area. Later, the Assam Rifles officers introduced a young differently-abled girl of Tuitong village, who is expert in making decorative flowers and cane and bamboo stools, to the Chief Minister. Shri N. Biren instructed the officers concerned to arrange a soft loan for her from Manipur State Co-operative Bank to earn her livelihood. The Village Authority leaders and Assam Rifles officers presented a shawl and an avocado plant to the Chief Minister as a token of appreciation and respect. The interaction session was organised under the initiative of Col. A.S. Bajpai, Commandant of 19 Assam Rifles.
