The protest is being staged across the North Eastern States as per announcement of the North East Students' Organisation (NESO), which is a conglomerate if students' bodies from across the 7 North eastern states of India. AMSU is a component of the NESO and have been associating at any issue which hurt the sentiment of the people of the North East region.

"The Citizenship (Amendment) Bill, 2016 is a serious threat to the indigenous people of the North Eastern States as it will allow infiltration of more illegal migrants to the region where problem of illegal migrant had already affected the people", a representative of the AMSU said while talking to media persons.

He added that granting of citizenship to illegal migrants from outside the country can never be accepted by the AMSU.

Earlier, Representatives of AMSU along with partners of NESO had met the Joint Parliamentary Committee On Citizenship (Amendment) Bill, 2016 at Shillong and expressed strong opposition to the passing of the Bill.

The protest gains momentum at Assam and in Manipur too protest against illegal migrants in Manipur spearheaded by the AMSU under the slogan "Go back Foreigner" had almost burnt the state. 2 student protestors lost their live in the course of agitation. The MASU had already signed memorandum of understanding twice with the government to flush out the illegal migrants from the state in 1990 and 1994, said a representative of the AMSU. The AMSU also express strong apprehension about making Manipur a dumping zone for illegal migrant as the government is trying to pass the Citizenship (Amendment) Bill, 2016 while the demand for passing of Inner Line Permit System legislation still is kept pending.

At around noon representatives of the AMSU comprising of General Secretary of NESO Sinam Prakash, President of AMSU Manjit Sarangthem among others submitted a memorandum to the governor of Manipur while other volunteers of the AMSU stage protest at Keishampat Community Hall.

Women's inclusion in every platform is a necessity: Th Radheshyam

DIPR
Imphal, May 21,

Education Minister Thokchom Radheshyam said that women's inclusion in every societal platform is a necessity to define and fulfil the real essence of women empowerment. He stressed that the women need to be strong to participate in the events organised at local as well as higher level so that the movement of empowering women could begin from the grassroots levels and make it spread.

The Minister said that women or girls should be embraced as a key member in decision making of any societal or political events rather than limiting their task in welcoming of guest. He was speaking as the Chief Guest at - A Two Day National Seminar on Human Development and Gender organised by the Ideal Girl's College, Akampat, Imphal East, with financial assistance from Department of Social Welfare and Higher Education, Government of Manipur. Th. Radheshyam asserted that research should be carried out focussing on certain factors of political, social, and economic with a focus to gender justice. It is necessary to check and encourage women and girls perform and participate in these factors. He said, human development can be achieved only when the environment is taken into consideration, since human cannot exist in isolation. No human can survive without nature, he added.

He opined that human need to open up more to become innovative and creative and guide the young minds towards the achievement of better and an inclusive society. He added that the teachers as well as the students need to inculcate a habit to question for enriching one's thinking capability. Education, he explained is not just to get a degree but to enable one to think and work for the progress of the society and country as whole.

International Secretary, Council for Teacher Education, Prof. Nilima Bhagabati said that many obstacles need to be overcome by prioritising and emphasising equal treatment and participation of women. Participation by women from all spheres of life is important to empower women, she added.

Highlighting the theme of the Two Day National Seminar, Additional Director University and Higher Dr. L. Iboyaima said that human development is about giving people more freedom and opportunities to live lives they value. He said that gender identity is a social construct while sexual identity is biological.

The seminar has been organised to draw a road map for human development by focussing the importance of gender equity and removing all the discriminations and differences which are the hurdles of human development.

The inauguration was attended by the Principal of various colleges, professors, paper presenters and students. Later, the Minister accompanied by the Principal and staff of the college inspected the college premise.

Ravi statement on Naga Accord: No Clarification Made, Agitation Continues

IT News
Imphal, May 21,

With no clarification came from Prime Minister, Narendra Modi and Home Minister, Kiren Rijiju against the provocation statement given by interlocutor RN. Ravi in national media in connection with the Naga Accord, civil organizations of the state continue its protest.

A sit-in-protest cum public meeting was jointly organised by Khwairamband Apunba Ima Keithel (KAIK), United Committee Manipur (UCM), All Manipur United Clubs' Organisation (AMUCO) and Committee of Civil Societies of Kangleipak (CCSK) at Khwairamband Keithel, Imphal, today.

Speaking to media persons, AMUCO president, Ph. Devan Sharma said the statement given by interlocutor RN. Ravi on April 26, 2018 on a national media has created an enormous threat to the integrity of Manipur state.

In the statement given by R.N. Ravi shows pity politics being played to the people of the state in the name of assuring valley area protection bill and removal of AFSPA while their main ideology is to create hatred among the different communities of the state. A territorial Council one specific community is nothing but spewing venom to the unity of the various ethnic community in the state. Sunil Karam, UCM president said that as per the agreement signed with Home Minister, it was agreed that stakeholders and Manipur Government will be consulted before finalizing the framework agreement. Sunil said the statement given by R.N. Ravi about establishment of Autonomous Naga Territorial Council and Common Naga Cultural Body seems to be stated in conivance with the Prime Minister as there is no clarification from his side.

"The Prime Minister of India should clarify over the statement of R.N. Ravi", Sunil added. Sunil also said that on May 6, 2018, the civil organization has sought for clarification from the concern but till date no positive response has been given which is very unfortunate. Since that various form of agitation has been carrying out in the state and until their demands is made their will be no drawback, even the situation may get worst if the clarification is made at the earliest.

Jeetendra Ningomba, Vice President CCSK said that no clarification till that despite submission of numerous memorandums and demands made by the civil organization regarding the Naga Accord and statement made by RN. Ravi clearly shows that the Centre is utilising the interlocutor to calculate the sentiment of the Manipur people.

People of Manipur will not tolerate such act by the Prime Minister, Home Minister and concern government, he added.

Later, 16 members including 8 Imas from Apunba Khwairamband Keithel and 8 leaders of Civil Organisation UCM, AMUCO and CCSK submitted a memorandum to Governor of Manipur.

Meanwhile, most of the shops in Khwairamband Keithel including, Paona Keithel, Thangal Keithel, MG Avenue, etc remains close due to the sit-in cum public meeting held today which gave an inconveniences to the public marketing.
