Olympics gold my dream, training hard for it: Mary Kom

Agency
New Delhi, Nov 28

A sixth world title added to her cabinet, ace Indian boxer M C Mary Kom Wednesday said she is now aiming for a gold in the Olympics.

The 36-year-old claimed her sixth gold at the world event, making her the most successful boxer in the tournament's history with an overall tally of seven medals.

"I have a medal in Olympics (a bronze in 2012), but gold is something I dream for. I am very happy about my championship win, as it boosted my confidence to face life head-on," she told reporters on the sidelines of an athletics event here.

"I am eyeing a gold at Tokyo Olympics. I will train doubly-triply hard to get a gold for my country," she said.

Mary Kom won her world title in the 48kg category but for the Olympics, she will have to bulk up to the 51kg division.

Union Minister for Women and Child Development Maneka

Gandhi, who was also present at the function held at the JLN Stadium, called Mary Kom a "national treasure".

"She has won six world titles and we are happy that she administered a pledge to the children present here on keeping the fairness and sportsmen's spirit in any game," Gandhi said.

Mary Kom, during her interaction with the media, said a disciplined training regimen is what keeps her bout-ready at all times.

"I have been very sincere during my training. If I have 2-3 sessions, I will make it a point to not miss them, I attend as many as possible. If I don't train, I won't succeed," she said. Asked if her training schedule will undergo any change keeping the Olympics in mind, the Manipuri said she will talk to her coach and the Boxing Federation of India (BFI) to work out her plan.

"I will speak to my coach, the BFI, the SAI (Sports Authority of India). We have already got some good facilities and hope to get better results this time," Mary Kom said.

Manipur to play final with England

By : Wahengbam Tiken

In a thrilling and keenly contested Yvonne match, England and USA played out a 3-3 draw on the sixth day of the 12th Manipur Polo International 2018. With this draw, England made it to the final and will play host Manipur who maintained an all-win record by defeating Uruguay 5-3 in their final match yesterday.

The England, USA match started off at great pace, both sides attacking each other's goals repeatedly. Though there were quite some good shots and near misses, both the teams defended their citadels equally competently. After a lot of to and fro, towards the end of the chukker, Kegan Walsh scored through a 60 yards penalty in the 6.03rd minute to open the account for USA.

In the 2nd chukker, there was some very good defending by English players, especially Ben Eeley and managed to keep the USA at bay. Both the teams failed to score any goals in this chukker. The 3rd chukker belonged to England, they came on their own with the captain leading the charge.

In the 16th minute of the 3rd chukker, Connor Deal struck for USA to surge ahead 2-0 and it appeared as though the Americans are running away with the match. But George Shelton had other ideas, he set the tone for this chukker when he stole the ball from Kegan Walsh in front of the American goal tapped it in to make it 1-2. Then Henry Amor picked up a pass from his brother George and slotted in another goal in the 3.55th minute to draw level. But the Americans took the lead again when Chad Bowman scored in the 5.07th minute. Towards the end of the chukker, George Amor scored to make it 3-3 and this was the score line at the end of the match, as the 4th chukker yielded no more goals.

The England team was represented by George Shelton, Ben Eeley, George Amor and Henry Amor while Kegan Walsh, Pedro Lara, Chap Bowman and Connor Deal turned out for USA. The match was officiated by Girmohan of Manipur and Rafale Secco from Uruguay.

Earlier, in the first match of the day, Manipur defeated Uruguay 5-3 to enter the final. Kaoba opened the account for Manipur in the 4.44th minute of the 1st chukker. The second goal for Manipur came when Ojit made a huge shot towards the goal chased it and tapped it in to make it 2-0 in the 5.01st minute. The Uruguayans who were matching the local lads shot for shot pulled one back through Juan Fernandez in the 5.36th minute. The score read 2-1 at the end of this chukker.

In the 2nd chukker, Bimol scored in the 1.16th minute following a fine run by Leishemba. Then in the 4.31st minute, Pradeep took a fine 60 yards penalty shot to make it 4-1 in favour of Manipur. Pradeep, then added another goal from a No. 2 penalty right in front of the goal. This chukker ended with the score reading 5-1.

The 3rd chukker yielded no goals and in the 4th chukker, the local lads failed to add to their tally while Uruguay added two goals. The first of these were scored by Guillermo Secco when he fired in a beautiful backhand in the 4.41st minute and the last Uruguayan goal was scored by Alejandro Fernandez from a penalty No 2. Manipur won the match 5-3.

The Manipur team - S Bimol, T Pradeep, P Ojit, Th Kaoba, Th Jacob and L e i s h e m b a Takhellambam. All of them played in rotation in this match. Uruguay team - Rafael Secco, Juan Fernandez, Juan Secco, Alejandro Elhordoy, Guillermo Secco. The match was conducted by Dfr Rambir and Nadim Ali of India. Today is an off day and on Nov 29 Manipur will fight it out with England to retain the Manipur Polo International Cup.
