Letter to the Editor

"Looking for a Peaceful democratic Life

It should be wise for us to ready for a peaceful & democratic way of life. I humbly request in the ensuing elections we should try to overcome from the hands of the corrupt people as we know election as the life blood of democracy. Though defeated we should not be despaired. Right, Money, Corruption, Muscle Power, Destroyed the true essence of election, I still promise that we must have truth and in my last test of my friends they should be with democratic principles. At the same time work in a very peaceful and non violent with no partisan. And, under the banner of a right leader of the time- I like protection of judicial independence, as well as the fundamental rights of the people- free from all dirty tricks to true path- for the welfare of the poorest of the poor villagers in the humble hut and paddy fields also the innocent brave Mothers. I really know that we should prepare for the coming election to be free from the giants of money power and see the right and abled leader who can move for the lost sovereignty of our land democratically. Even though it is too late, by hard working and sincere with dedicated legal experts death with international and Human laws democratically.

Lastly, by humble looking forward for a peaceful clean and beautiful constituencies before the coming elections to come whatever may be and should not make ourselves defeated by demons of money.

Corrigendum

This is to clarify that the news report published in our yesterday's issue under the heading "Ringui village authority donates 600 acres to state forest department" should be read as "Villager donates 600 acre of land to Village authority's Environmental Body 'RINGUIHOREI' for creating reserved land. The error is regretted.
