ECI through the Returning Officer for conducting fresh re-poll in around 30 polling stations of the Inner Manipur PC. The CPI candidate have been alleging booth capturing and malpractices being carried out during the voting at various places mainly in the constituencies belonging to the ministers of the present government. Speaking to media persons at Irawat Bhavan today, Nara said that they have found that massive malpractices were done in the four assembly constituencies namely Andro, Heingang, Thongju, Keirao and also added that they have found the evidence regarding it. He said that he had lodged complaint to the Returning Officer to re-poll 13 polling stations of Andro, 7 polling stations at Heingang, 1 polling station at Thongju and 3 polling stations at Keirao. Nara alleged that at polling station No. 7/39 in Andro assembly constituency, two persons voted for the whole voters, he said that documents regarding it have been submitted to the authority. He added that such practice is a criminal act. He said that all the reports of malpractices and manipulations were confirmed seeing the details of form 17-A.

He further added that in Heingang assembly constituency, which belongs to the Chief Minister, Voter turnout is recorded 91.3 percent which is unbelievable where voters turnout is quite low for the Lok Sabha election for the whole of India.

Nara said that the complaint he lodge is not about getting the lost vote but also to draw the attention of the ECI on how the beauty of democracy is being maligned. He further said that the government who ruled doesn't practiced democracy and demanded justice for protection of the sanctity of democracy. He asked, "What harmed is for the ruling party if voting was done democratically voting their own choices". He said that the attitude of doing wrong things by the people who claimed to do welfare for the public should be stopped. He finally urged for re-poll in the said polling stations.

Allegations made by CPI to defame 3 sitting Minister a day before voting day in violation MCC – CMO

IT News
Imphal, April 19,

The holding of the press conference at Irawat Bhawan, Bir Tikendrajit Road, Imphal on Wednesday i.e., on the 17th day of April, 2019, by CPI Manipur State Council Secretary, L.Sotinkumar, when the poll was already scheduled to be held on 18th April, 2019 is per se, in clear violation of the Model Code of Conduct, said a statement by S Ranjan, PS to CM. In the press conference held at Irawat Bhawan, Bir Tikendrajit Road, Imphal on the 17th April, 2019, CPI Manipur State Council Secretary, L. Sotinkumar claimed to received reports from the party local units and made allegations about the CPI workers being threaten in the constituencies of as reproduced in daily newspapers of April 18, 2019 PS to the CM statement said that the allegations have been made to defame the three sitting Ministers of the said three assembly constituencies and impute to the public at large that the said three ministers, the BJP candidate R.K.Ranjan and the Bharatiya Janata Party are unfair and indulge in illegal activities. The allegations are therefore aimed at lowering their good will, image and reputation in the society. It added that the statements made in the said press conference and widely circulated in newspaper and local TV news channels are also in violation of Model Code of Conduct as the said allegations are totally baseless, false and bereft of any truth. The said allegations are personal attacks against the three Ministers, solely aimed at tarnishing their images, good will and reputation and that too at a time, when voters would be casting their votes today. The malafied intention of holding the press conference on 17/04/2019 was to ensure that in the morning of the poll day on 18/04/2019, when the voters prepare to cast their votes for the Inner Manipur Parliamentary Constituency, they are negatively influenced against the said three Ministers, the BJP candidate and the BJP. It is aimed to mislead the voters to cast their votes against BJP and the BJP candidate, the statement added.
