IT News
Churachandpur, Jan. 20

Singhat Battalion Assam Rifles under the aegis of Churachandpur Sector Assam Rifles is organizing a National Integration Tour for a team comprising of 15 students and 02 teachers from various schools of Singhat village, Manipur. This tour is a part of the Assam Rifles Civic Action Project and the underprivileged children and orphans belonging to various tribes of Singhat Sub Division are its beneficiaries. They represent the rich diversity that exists in the region and are a fine example of unity within diversity. The tour was flagged off from Khuga by Commander, Churachandpur Sector Assam Rifles in a formal ceremony on 06 Jan 2019 in the presence of DI Kapneithang and Paokhoang as reps from the Education Department.

In his address to the students, the Commander congratulated them on being part of the tour, motivated them to do well and encouraged them to learn as much as possible during the tour. The students were visibly excited during the flagging off and were eagerly looking forward to visiting various places of national and historical importance in Delhi and Agra. The 14 day tour is being conducted with an aim to educate the students about the heritage, diversity and the developmental strides made by our country in various fields. It will also give the students an opportunity to appreciate the vastness of our country and give them a glimpse into the facets of urban life hitherto unknown to them. The tour will be helpful for the students in expanding their horizons and will make a positive impact on them during their formative years.

IT News
Imphal, Jan. 20

Mantripukhari Battalion of 9 Sector Assam Rifles under the aegis of IGAR (South) conducted a friendly Volleyball Match at Sawbung Company Operating Base on 19th January 2019. The match was played between the team of Phaknung village and troops of Assam Rifles to embrace a sense of sportsmanship and fitness amongst locals and further explore the young hidden talents in the area. The match witnessed 20 youth including players of the village. Both the teams played with extreme passion and displayed a great sportsmanship spirit. In addition, various aspects concerning security in the area with respect to upcoming Republic Day and 17th Manipur Lok Sabha election were also discussed. At the end of the event all were served with tea and refreshments. The event provided a forum for the youth of the area for an interaction with the Assam Rifles. The youth appreciated the effort shown by Assam Rifles to promote sports.

5 Cars Stolen From Delhi Workshop; CCTV Shows Accused Driving Away

Agency
New Delhi, Jan. 20

Five cars are missing from an automobile workshop at Nangloi in west Delhi Tuesday night. Senior Delhi Police officers say, a case has been registered and an investigation is underway. "Several teams have been formed to recover the cars. We are investigating the matter," senior officer, Seju Kuruvilla told news agency ANI.

The high profile theft assumes significance as it comes just a week ahead of Republic Day, when security is heightened across the national capital region. The five vehicles, which have gone missing, include a Volkswagen Polo, Honda Amaze, Force Gurkha, Ford Ecosport and Mitsubishi Pajero. The owner of the workshop, who has been identified as one Praveen Kumar, said that six cars were parked for repair, when he left the night before the theft. But the following day when he came to the workshop, five of the vehicles were missing. "Got a call from a helper on Wednesday morning about the theft. The keys of stolen vehicles were kept on Pajero's dashboard," said the owner of the workshop. The police are analysing a CCTV video from the area, which apparently shows five men, who came and jumped the cars and sped away. Reports suggest that the owner of the Force Gurkha is the son of a senior defence ministry official.
