Assam Rifles conducts lecture and demonstration on water conservation

IT News
Imphal, July 29,

Chandel Battalion of 26 Sector Assam Rifles under the aegis of IGAR (South) organised a lecture and demonstration on rain water harvesting as part of the "Jal Shakti Abhiyan" in Larong Khullen village, which is a remotely located village in Chandel district of Manipur on 28 July 2019. The government has announced "Jal Shakti Abhiyan" to tackle the concern of drought in the country. Under the project 255 districts have been selected across the country as water stressed districts which include Chandel district from Manipur too. With this scheme, extensive awareness campaign regarding rain water harvesting and conserving rainwater is planned. Assam Rifles will also be celebrating defence personnel day on 03 August 2019 as part of the Jal Shakti Abhiyan with an aim of water conservation and water security. To start with spreading the awareness regarding same a lecture and demonstration was conducted by troops of Chandel battalion for the villagers of Larong and nearby villages. A total of 65 villagers attended the event which started with lecture on the importance of water conservation, rain water harvesting and water security by the Company Commander and a short video on Jal Shakti Abhiyan was also screened. It was followed by a demonstration of the best practices for the rain water harvesting being followed at the Assam Rifles remotely located Company Operating Bases which will be implemented at the village too with the support of troops of Assam Rifles.

Earlier, the villagers informed the problems related to water scarcity at the village to the Chandel battalion and requested for the help. The village is facing acute shortage of water and they are not aware about the best practices of rain water harvesting even though the village receives adequate rainfall. The villagers were adequately briefed about the concept of rain water harvesting and how the scheme can be adopted to solve the water scarcity. In the end, the villagers praised the efforts of the troops of Assam Rifles in making them aware about the benefits of rain water harvesting and promise to support them in implementing the scheme. Assam Rifles always remain in the forefront to support the people from the remotest part of the country by various outreach programs.

Yediyurappa-led BJP govt wins trust vote in Karnataka, announces farm sops 'like Modi'

Agency
New Delhi July 29,

Karnataka Chief minister BS Yediyurappa won the floor test in the assembly on Monday with voice vote, two days after taking oath for his fourth term as the chief minister of the state. Soon after, Speaker KR Ramesh Kumar announced his resignation seeking forgiveness for "mistakes", if any. While introducing the motion, Yediyurappa announced sops for farm sector saying he was following in the footsteps of Prime Minister Narendra Modi. "Like Modi, I too have decided to give two installations of Rs 2000 to beneficiaries under PM Kisan scheme from the state's side," the chief minister said during the floor test that followed the JD(S)-Congress coalition losing a trust vote last week. Yediyurappa said that the administration had failed in the state and he would set it right. "I give an assurance in the house that we won't indulge in vindictive politics either. I believe in forget and forgive." Appealing for the support of the house, the chief minister said: "I appeal to the opposition that we must all work together. I also appeal to the house to unanimously express confidence in me." The former chief minister HD Kumaraswamy said: "Power is not permanent, even for Narendra Modi and JP Nadda. We will not try to bring down your number from 105 to either 100 or lower. You speak of drought, at least now let's see how you will work. We will cooperate with you for the sake of people." The Speaker announced his resignation after the trust vote saying, "If there were any mistakes from my side please forgive me. I think this is the biggest achievement in my life."

The floor test came a day after Karnataka Ramesh Kumar on Sunday disqualified 14 rebel lawmakers whose decision to skip a trust vote last week toppled the state government. Kumar said the 14 legislators - 11 from the Congress and three from its ally, the Janata Dal (Secular) - stood disqualified until the term of the current assembly, due to end in 2023, and could not even contest bypolls. The decision also forecloses the possibility of any of the rebel legislators being named as ministers in the new government. He said, however, that they would be free to contest if fresh assembly elections were called.

The three of the disqualified MLAs on Monday moved the Supreme Court challenging the Speaker's orders.

Yogi ready for CBI probe into Unnao rape survivor's accident

Agency
Lucknow July 29,

The Yogi Adityanath government has said if the family of the Unnao rape survivor wants, his government is ready to recommend a CBI probe into the Rae Bareilly accident in which two were killed, while the survivor and her lawyer were critically injured. The survivor and her lawyer Mahendra Singh have been on life support system since the Sunday accident.

Uttar Pradesh Director General of Police O.P. Singh said the rape survivor had been given three personal security guards but the survivor told the security personnel to stay back since there was no room in the car. He said that prima facie it seemed to be a case of accident since the truck was coming at a high speed. He said that eye witness accounts had also been recorded. Meanwhile, it has been found that the registration plate of the truck had been painted black which indicates a larger conspiracy in the matter. Samajwadi Party President

Akhilesh Yadav and the Congress have sought the Central Bureau of Investigation probe into the incident.

Akhilesh Yadav said that the rape survivor had been provided security but not a single security personnel were present with her at the time of the accident. A CBI inquiry was needed to probe whether it was a conspiracy to eliminate the family or just an accident, he said.

Azam Khan apologizes for objectionable comment in Lok Sabha

Agency
New Delhi, Jul 29,

Samajwadi Party MP Azam Khan on Monday apologized to BJP MP Rama Devi for his objectionable comment against her during the Lok Sabha proceedings last week. Soon after the House assembled for the day, Speaker Om Birla asked Khan, an MP from Uttar Pradesh's Rampur, to speak on the issue. Khan in his response said: "I had no such intention for the Chair... Whole House knows my speech and conduct. Despite that if Chair feels that I had done any mistake then I apologize for that." Participating in a discussion on the Muslim Women (Protection of Rights on Marriage) Bill, 2019 on July 25, Khan made a remark directed at Rama Devi, who was presiding over the House, drawing objections from the treasury benches. Rama Devi, a member from Bihar's Sheohar, herself objected to the sexist remark and ordered it be expunged from Parliament records. Next day, the Lok Sabha members unanimously condemned Khan's comment against Rama Devi and demanded "exemplary" action against him from the Speaker.

Raghul, Vishnu bring JKNRC to life, win one race each in LGB-4

By a Correspondent
Coimbatore, July 29:

The Chennai duo of Raghul Rangasamy and Vishnu Prasad brought the opening round of the 22nd JK Tyre FMSCI National Racing Championship to life, splitting dramatic victories in the FLGB-4 category on an action-packed Day 2 here on Sunday.

The day began with Raghul stealing the thunder but ended with Vishnu streaking to his second last-lap win to spice up the competition. It made for a perfect weekend for their team, MSport, though. The three podium finishes, including his win on Saturday, handed Vishnu the championship lead with a grand total of 28 points. All this came along with a lot of post-race drama, with Vishnu first being dislodged from the top before being reinstated again after a series of protests.

The JK Tyre Novice Cup too saw some heated off-the-track action. Bangalore's Chirag Ghorpade (Momentum Motorsports) sailed past the chequered flag for the third consecutive time, only to discover that he had made a jump start. He was penalised by 10 seconds that saw him slide all the way down to the eighth position.

Mohamed Ryan (MSports, Chennai), who had finished second after him, was declared the winner while Aaroh Ravindra (Momentum; Mumbai) moved up one step to take the second position. The change hurt Chirag badly, taking away the overall championship lead from him and yielding it to Aaroh. The Suzuki Gixxer Cup was a repeat of Day 1, with Bangalore's Syed Muzammil Ali scoring an encore, but this time with over 5 seconds to spare. Pune's Tanay Gaikwad (14:25.458) and Sidharth Sajan (14:27.480) held on to their podium places, in almost identical fashion.

The JK Tyre Redbull Road to Rookies saw Ikshan Shanbag of Satara underlining his potential with his second straight win. Prashanth R (Chennai) and Aryan Gurav (Pune) took the other two places on the podium. A new category for women was also introduced, celebrating the best racer in the LGB-4 bunch. Vadodara's Mira Erda (MSport) grabbed the honours by finishing ahead of all the women in each of the races.

Ahura Racing's duo of Megha KS and Diana Pundole took the first and second runner's up trophies in this round.
