

An ex-student of Standard Robarth recounts atrocious experiences during her stay in the school's boarding

IT Exclusive
Imphal, July 24,

An ex-student of Standard Robarth Higher Secondary School shared their nightmarish experience while staying in the school's boarding. Before I share my story, I request to not disclose my identity, the lady now doing her graduation told Imphal Times. She said, "The incidents that I am going to share today are what I actually experienced and witnessed during my stay in the boarding of Standard Robarth. I hope my side of the story helps in giving justice to Babysana". Imphal Times taking the matter

Produce below is what she narrated to Imphal Times:

With one elder sister and two younger sisters, I stayed in the boarding from 2009-2012 (class 5-8). During these 4 years of my stay, I witnessed the wardens physically abusing the students with such atrocity, but without any proper reasoning, like how terrorists apathetically torture people. It included me and my sisters, too. I hope people will trust what I am saying.

Experiences since 2009:

1. When I entered the boarding for the first time, I witnessed two sisters and a girl being harshly beaten in the assembly ground for running away from the boarding. Even Madam Landhoni was involved in beating them. One of the girls was very small.

Instead of beating them if these homesick students were properly counselled, many students in the boarding would not have seen them in a bad light. The wardens made them lie face down and brutally beat them, like how animals are atrociously tortured. Seven wardens and madam Landhoni brutally beat the students innumerable times with canes without any sympathy and without even considering if it would hurt the students or not.

2. When I was in class 5, just because my name appeared like that of a boy when written backward on a bench, I was blamed for writing a boy's name and beaten while making me lie face down.

3. Instead of correcting students' mistakes and guiding them towards the right path, the wardens called whatever the immature, young students did as crime, labelled them as thieves, shameless, and brutally beat them in the assembly ground. When a student borrowed someone else's belt because they had lost their belt, the student was beaten by hanging on the belt.

AMSU President also said that the organisation has names of other teachers who could have been involved in the case and their names will be revealed later. AMSU also called a joint meeting with the parents of students residing in Standard Robarth boarding at Ima Khunthoknganbi Shanglen on July 25 at 11 am. He further appealed the parents to attend the meeting and said that the organisation will not entertain the comments of the parents who didn't take part in the meeting.

The students' body also appealed the people of the state to support the 24 hours bandh called by the JAC formed against the mysterious death of Babysana at the hostel room of Standard Robarth School. Ningthoujam Babysana, a student of class VII died in mysterious circumstances in her hostel room. School authority has been claiming the death as 'suicide'.

Name the students' body which stops investigation of Babysana death case – Joykishan to PWG

IT News
Imphal, July 24,

While appreciating the concerns of an outlawed group called PWG to the mysterious death of Ningthoujam Babysana at the Hostel room of Standard Robarth, MLA of Thangmeiband Assembly Constituency, Khumukcham Joykishan urged the outlaw body to name the students' body which stopped conducting investigation to find the cause of the death by favouring the Principal of the school. Speaking to media persons today morning, Joykishan said that even though he is very much against separatist movement as he believes in the constitution of India, some good works taken up by them should be appreciated. He expressed dissatisfactions to many of the students' bodies and civil society organizations over their silence to the alleged heinous crime committed to a girl student.

"Everyone of us who want justice to be delivered to the ill fated girl should raise their voice against the injustice done to her", MLA Joykishan said.

He added that as appeared at some of the newspapers the armed outfit Peoples' War Group (PWG) had stated that one students' group had stopped the investigate by favouring the Principal of the School, Pheiroijam Landhoni Devi. As the PWG had not mentioned the name of the students' organizations – image of all other students' body struggling for justice of Babysana are being spoiled.

As witnessed by the people of the state the AMSU had relentlessly agitated for justice of the ill fated girl supporting the cause of the JAC formed against the mysterious death of Babysana yesterday. Some other students' body like SSUM, SUK etc. had also extended their support to the movement of the JAC.

However, which is the student body that the PWG was taking about. The PWG should made public the name of the students' organization which is standing in favour of the school.

On the other hand, MLA Joykishan also lambasted the Education Minister and SP of Imphal West for trying to fool the common people by saying that two of the suspects had been arrested.

"If they have arrested them why they are not making it public", Joykishan said adding that they are only trying to divert the people's agitation.

Joykishan also lambasted the government over failure to arrest a girl which has been spreading false news calling the death of Babysana's death as suicide.

When a person who wrote anything against the government in social networking site can be arrested from anywhere in the state or outside the state, why the girl which has been spreading false story to incite anger to the public has not been arrested, Joykishan questioned the government.
