IT News
Imphal, March 19,

Manipur Pradesh Congress Committee is all set to give a warm reception to the All India Congress Committee (AICC) President which is expected to land at Imphal Airport at 4.30 pm today.

Members of MPCC including CLP leader O. Ibobi visited the site for public meeting being prepared to be conducted at Hapta Kangjeibung where Rahul Gandhi will speak to a gathering tomorrow.

Speaking to media persons while inspecting the preparation done at Hapta Kangjeibung CLP leader O. Ibobi said that Gandhi Nehru family has a strong feeling towards North East specially Manipur. He appealed the people of the state to attend the visit of Rahul Gandhi at Imphal. He added that the people might be eager to hear what Rahul might say about the different issues of International, National and regional especially about the state.

Ibobi claimed that Congress party has taken very seriously about the commitments and the manifesto given by the party. He appealed the people to hear about the burning issues to be delivered by Rahul Gandhi and asked the people need to judge if the party did it or not in the near future.

President of Manipur Pradesh Congress Committee (MPCC)

Gaikhangam said that the visit of Rahul Gandhi at Imphal is a great opportunity for the people not only for MPCC. He added that the present government has been very repressive and even greater than during the period of British colonial era. He said that the government has been silencing the voice which critique against the government and considers them as anti-national and charged under sedition. He added that the present government governed through democracy until the voice wasn't raised against them and governance through democracy came to an end if people raised voices against the government. He added that the nation has been witnessing the dark days. Gaikhangam further stressed that the people of the nation considered that Rahul Gandhi as the saviour of the nation which will liberate from the impressive regime of the government. He concluded that the meeting is not for the party only but for state. He appealed the people to attend and participate the meeting. Clarifying the statements about BJP where they claimed that they will win by attaining more than three hundred seats. Gaikhangam said that the BJP's claimed is simply a daydream where they will not even scores 200 seats as the whole of the nation considers to uproot the present government as they will destroy the nation. It can be mentioned that Rahul Gandhi after reaching Imphal, he will visit Shaheed Minar to pay homage to the martyrs and also is expected to visit Ema Keithel. And he will give his speech which is considered to be a mammoth gathering according to MPCC will be tomorrow at Hapta Kangjeibung. Interaction with the youths will also be there.

Manipur Maoist warns Catholic School

IT News
Imphal, March 19,

The unsettled dispute between the Catholic run school and an armed group is not about the denial of the school authority in admitting students but the school authority's disrespect to the agreement made between the armed group and the authority to accommodate 10 children each from the family of the victims of armed conflict as agreed earlier, said Maoist Communist party Manipur (MCPM).

A statement of the outfit said that till today the school authority had not convened any meeting with the Students' bodies and CSOs of the state to solve the dispute, which meant that the Catholic school society neither have respect for the Armed rebel group or for the students of the states. The attitude also showed that the Catholic schools which comes from outside the state have no regards for the students' bodies as well as the CSOs of the state, the statement added.

Except for demand to implement the agreed point for reservation of the children of armed no letter as been submitted to the Catholic society, the Maoist said.

It further claimed that Lanchenba group of KCP and the PWG along with their cadre had fired rounds of gun shot at the gate of St. Joseph but they concealed the incident without letting it known to anyone. The Manipur Maoist had also recalled on the IED planted by PWG at the Catholic school.

The statement said that the three outfit, KCP- PWG, Lanchenba group of KCP and the Maoist are ready to respond to the attitude of the Catholic School. It said all works related with catholic School will be put to halt if fails to tender apology to the people and also to the parties. The statement however said, that it will hand on teachers, non-teaching staffs and school van, however it will not interfere the students.
