Imphal, Sept 7

In the aftermath of the announcement of NRC in Assam where over 19 lakhs people have been excluded from the list, an unusual rise of non Manipuri speaking people were reported from Manipur area in Imphal West area.

Talking over phone a resident from Manipur area said that the last few days saw many non Manipuri speaking people in between Masajid located opposite to the newly constructed Secretariat building till Manipur area.

Keithel area. He said that the said stretch was mostly cultivable land some years back but now many houses were seen constructed. He however did not said that those new construction are illegal as he have to verified it. Another person who contacted to Imphal Times, but refuse to reveal his identity said that many big contractors have now stopped worrying about cheap labourers. A person of the area residing near the Masajid controlled all the labourers and any number when asked to him were available any time. But the labourers do not talk meiteilon and they look like more Bangali.

The recent rise of population seems to be impact of the declaration of the NRC in Assam, he said and added that government should immediately check these suspicious person who are seen recently.

"There are even shops in the area where the shop runners don't speak meiteilon", the person who called to Imphal Times said expressing suspicion that even they would have been intruded due to fear of NRC where their name are not included.

CM Biren does not have a political will - STDCM

IT News
Imphal, Sept 7

Schedule Tribe Demand Committee Manipur (STDCM) today slammed the Chief Minister N. Biren as a Chief Minister without political will. Speaking to media persons in a press meet held today at the office of STDC, Thangmeiband Convenor of Coordinating Body of STDC L. Romesh said forward the sentiments of the people instead of holding his chair.

Those members of the STDCM who were picked up by police for locking of the railway office at Moirangkhom were however released today.

Decrying the brutality and disrespect to the elders by OC of Imphal West Ingocha, Romesh strongly condemned such act towards the democratic and non violent agitation done towards the elders who are even in his 80s.

He added to stop killing their own community for the sake of medals.

Romesh further urged the government not to send recommendation to include Meitei/Meitei in the ST list is because of the lack of political will.

He further said that it was unfortunate not to send recommendations to the Central government even though the Chief Minister considered that the inclusion of Meitei/Meitei is vital.

Reminding yesterday's incident where members of STDC were detained by police for closing the railway construction office at Moirangkhom, Romesh said that they were later called to talk with the Chief Minister.

"CM told that some Meitei urge the government not to send recommendation to include in the ST List and this hinder him", said Romesh highlighting the hindrance for inclusion.

He further said that if the CM loves his land he should put forward the sentiments of the people instead of holding his chair.
